To the Govt. of Madras.

Sir,

By Virtue of the power
reserved by the Govt.
of Madras to determine what other diplomas or certificates shall be accepted as qualifications under articles 2, 3, 4 of the Madras Educational Rules, I beg to bring the following

3 2

You will view them ^{favorably} I am a member of the College of Preceptors (Incorporated by Royal Charter), London. I am the only native member in India. Please therefore be kind enough to accept my membership, as the Govt. have approved the membership of other societies as equivalent to a Trained Teacher of the Upper Secondary grade.

I hold at present a teacher's Certificate of Lower Secondary grade (first class) besides I have undergone a course of training in a training school attached to the Teachers' Colleges Saidapet.

Hoping that I will be favoured with an early order,

Yours obediently
N. Venkataswamy
