The Hon'ble Mr.H.Bradley,I.C.S.

Read endorsement of E.J.Bower, Esquire, Assistant Inspector in charge of the Northern Distillery Circle,C.R.No. 530 of 01, dated 18th September 1901, on the application of one S.M.Duraiswami Mudali,1st grade Duffadar,for exemption from the Examination rules with a view to his being employed as a clerk or Sub-Inspector.

REFERENCE:-

In continuation of its Proceedings disposed of in G.O.No.110,Educational, dated 23rd February 1899,the Board requests that Government will be pleased to exempt S.M.Duraiswami Mudali, a first grade Duffadar who has passed the late Middle School Examination in the second class, from the Examination rules in view to his employment as a clerk or a Sub-Inspector in acting and temporary vacancies in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department. He has for some time past been employed under the Distillery Inspector, Northern Circle,and is reported to have picked up a considerable knowledge of the work of a Distillery Inspector's office; but his employment as a Sub-Inspector or clerk would of course in the first instance be in an ordinary factory or preventive Circle. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.

R. S. L. Chawhan
Acting Secretary.

To the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, with an application.

and says that in the first instance he employed in an ordinary factory or preventive circle. It is submitted therefore that his special knowledge will not be of much use there. Apart from this, however, clerical duties anywhere do not seem to be such as cannot be picked up easily by anyone.

2. ^{unless} more the same reason as that now adduced applied in the cases disposed of in G.O. No 332 of 16th June 1899 but please see the notes and orders at flap O.

 I thought that there may be appointments of clerks in a distributing office where the technical knowledge that has been picked up would be useful.
