ANNEXURE.

AGREEMENT made the Twenty-first day of August One thousand nine hundred and one between EDITH ANNETTE GOW of Khurshaid Munzil, Lucknow, India, of the first part and THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA IN COUNCIL of the second part WHEREAS the Secretary of State for India in Council has engaged the party of the first part to serve His Majesty in India as a Member of the Indian Educational Service and Superintendent of the Training School for Mistresses, Madras, for the term of Five years from the date of her reporting her arrival at Madras as hereinafter mentioned and subject to the conditions and agreements hereinafter contained.

Now these presents witness and the said parties hereto respectively agree as follows :—

1. That the party of the first part will proceed to Madras within such time as may be prescribed by the Governor of Madras in Council.

2. That the party of the first part will on arrival at Madras forthwith report herself to the officers of Government there and will submit herself to the orders of the Government and of the officers and authorities under whom she may from time to time be placed by the Government and that she will at all times obey the rules prescribed for the time being for the regulation of the branch of the public service to which she may belong and will when required by the Local Government proceed to any other part of the province within which she may be serving and there perform the duties of any specified office in the cadre of the Indian Educational Service of the province. If she shall be retained in the service after the expiration of the said term of Five years she will when required by the Government proceed to any other province in India and there perform the duties of any specified office in the cadre of the Indian Educational Service of that province.

3. That the party of the first part will devote her whole time to the duties of the service and will not engage directly or indirectly in any trade business or occupation on her own account and that she will not (except in case of accident or sickness certified by competent medical authority) absent herself from her said duties without having first obtained permission from the Government or its authorised officers.

4. That from the date of the party of the first part reporting her arrival at Madras the Government will pay her so long as she shall remain in the said service and actually perform her duties a salary at the rate of rupees three hundred and fifty per mensem for the first year rising by annual increments of ten rupees per mensem to three hundred and ninety rupees per mensem and if she shall remain in the service beyond that period then rising by annual increments of rupees ten per mensem to rupees four hundred and fifty per mensem.

5. That the Government may at any time during the said term of five years or if the service shall continue beyond such term at any time thereafter dispense with the services of the party of the first part without notice in the event of misconduct on her part or of a breach by her of any of the conditions herein specified.

6. That the party of the first part shall within two years after her reporting her arrival at Madras pass such examination as may be prescribed by the Government in one of the vernacular languages and if she shall fail to pass such examination within such two years the Government may dispense with her services.

7. That unless she the party of the first part shall receive notice in writing from some authorized officer of the Government six calendar months before the expiration of the said term of five years that Government no longer require her services or unless she shall give notice in writing to the Government six calendar months before the expiration of the said term of five years that she is desirous to put an end to her service under these presents she will continue in the service of Government upon the like terms and conditions as are herein contained so far as the same are applicable until the expiration of six calendar months from the time when she shall receive or shall give such a notice in writing which may be given so as to expire at any period of the year.

8. That if the party of the first part shall continue to serve Government under these presents for more than five years from the date of her reporting her arrival at Madras as aforesaid her service (commencing from the date of her entering on the performance of her duties as aforesaid) shall count as service towards leave and pension under such rules as regards leave and pension as may for the time being be applicable to her case—Provided always that in case of any dispute as to the interpretation of any of the said rules or otherwise relating in any way to them the decision of the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be conclusive.

9. That in any payments which may be made in Great Britain under these presents the rate of exchange between England and India annually fixed by the Secretary of State for India in Council in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be observed.

10. That the proceedings letters and reports of the Governor-General of India in Council or of any of the Local Governments and of all others the officers and agents of Government or any copies thereof or extracts therefrom which shall be sent officially to the Secretary of State for India in Council or to any officers or servants in the Indian service of His Majesty in England or elsewhere in any way relating to the sums of money to be paid or allowed to the party of the first part or to her conduct or in any way relating to the premises shall be received as conclusive evidence of any matter therein contained in any action or in any legal proceedings by or between the parties to these presents or in any way relating thereto.

In witness whereof the party of the first part and Sir James Braithwaite Peile, K.C.S.I., and Sir Stuart Colvin Bayley, K.C.S.I., being two Members of the Council of India, have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

Signed by the party of the first part in the presence of
A. ACHESON WILLIAMS,
Archdeacon of Madras.

EDITH A. GOW.

Signed by the said two Members of the Council of India in the presence of
W. H. TREASURE,
India Office.
