GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From A. WILLIAMS, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated Simla, 24th October 1901, No. 441.

In continuation of Home department letter No. 339, dated 19th August 1901, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the marginally-noted despatches on the subject of the readjustment of certain personal allowances granted to officers of the Indian Educational service, Madras.

Despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 255, dated 8th August 1901.

Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 122, dated 20th September 1901.

ENCLOSURES.

DESPATCH from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, Establishments, etc.—Education), to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Simla, 8th August 1901, No. 255.

Under the reorganization scheme of the Educational services in India, set forth in the resolution of the Home department, No. ^{4-Education} 204-15, dated the 23rd July 1896, a copy of which was forwarded to your Lordship with the despatch from Lord Elgin's Government, No. 221, dated the 11th August 1896, two grades of personal allowances to be attached to certain senior appointments in the Indian Educational service were sanctioned by the Government of India so as to correspond to some extent with the higher rates of pay in the old graded service which was being superseded. In the case of the Madras presidency two allowances of Rs. 250—50—500 were allotted for the Principal of the Presidency college, Madras, and the senior Inspector of schools, and two allowances of Rs. 200—10—250 for the Principals of the Rajahmundry college and the Kumbakonam college. It was, however, left open to the Government of Madras to give one of the latter allowances to an inspector of long standing and approved service, provided his claims were considered superior to those of one of the principals.

2. The Government of Madras now represent that the system of allotting the personal allowances in the Madras presidency is in practice attended with inconvenience, inasmuch as it deprives the local Government of the power of granting the allowances to the class of officers whom it considers most deserving of the concession; the Governor in Council urges that the system prevailing in Bengal, under which the two senior professors of the Presidency college, Calcutta, are also eligible for the allowances allotted to that province, might with advantage be extended to Madras.

3. We are of opinion that there is considerable force in the arguments advanced by the Government of Madras for a change in the present system of allotting these allowances, and we would, therefore, recommend, for your Lordship's sanction, the proposal of that Government that one senior allowance should be reserved for the Principal of the Presidency college, and that the other senior allowance and the two junior allowances should, in future, be open alike to the Principals of the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry colleges, the two Inspectors, and the two senior Professors of the Presidency college, Madras.

PATCH from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated India Office, London, 20th September 1901, No. 122, Public (Educational).

I have considered in council the Financial letter of your Excellency's Government, No. 255, dated the 8th August 1901, in which you recommend a readjustment of certain personal allowances granted to officers in the Madras Educational service.

2. I sanction your proposal that one senior allowance should in future be reserved for the Principal of the Presidency college, and that the other senior allowance and the two junior allowances should be open alike to the Principals of the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry colleges, the two Inspectors and the two senior Professors of the Presidency college, Madras.
