To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following case for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. Sayyed Abdul Khadir Saheb, an unpassed candidate and son of the Political Pensioner Sayyed Davud Ali Khan Saheb, grand-son of the Ex-Jagirdar of Uday giri, was offered an acting clerical appointment by Mr Mullaly in view to his being permanently exempted from the examination rules if he worked well. He was appointed to act as -- gumasta in the Atmakur Taluk office. The Deputy Collector, Atmakur, writes favourably of him and states that the Tahsildar speaks of him as a hardworking man, with an aptitude for work and possessing an excellent character.

3. As diligence and ^{an} aptitude for clerical work are not conspicuous among Political pensioners and their families, and as it is expedient that men possessing such qualities and belonging to old families should be encouraged to enter Government service instead of spending their time in idleness and as, also, the number of ^{Muslim} ~~Muslim~~ ^{Muslim} employed by Government in this district is very small, I beg to recommend the permanent exemption from examination rules of -- Sayyed Abdul Khadir as a special case. Government was pleased to -- exempt another member of the Jaghirdar's family in G.O. No: 338- Educational dated 14th June 1889.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. H. P. S. W. L. S.

It is opening the flood-gates. I submit that we need not concern ourselves too much about ^{their} Adagajiri family:
the head of it was beyond all reasonable doubt mixed up with others (Muzahid Khan) in 1838-9 and treasonable practices. Lord Napier actively encouraged them ^{in about 1870} they have no political status; & though it is to this man's credit if he is diligent & apt, that it hardly a reason for exempting him. The argument ^{is well known} as to the scarcity of Mussulmans is of more force, but after all the public service may be more benefited by a superfluity of Hindus than by a reduced number of them & a sprinkling of unpassed Mussulmans.

It is unfair to others to make these frequent exceptions.

The exemption asked for would enable him to hold appointments up to a salary of how much, in Rev. Dep. art?

800

20.10.07

Any appointment without reference to limit of salary for which no special tests are prescribed. The exemption will however enable the person to appear for all the special tests except Revenue higher & criminal, higher & lower.

He is not to help to ~~be~~ board to go up for these
