READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 30th October 1901, R.C. No. 6166.

Referring to G.O., No. 510, Educational, dated 11th September 1901, I have the honour to submit herewith, for the sanction of Government, a copy of the draft rules for the award of the "Branfoot Memorial Prize" which have been approved by the Medical College Council.

ENCLOSURE.

Draft rules for the award of the "Branfoot Memorial Prize" in the Madras Medical College.

1. This prize, which shall take the form of books or of medical instruments, shall be awarded annually to the student who obtains the greatest number of marks at a competitive examination in midwifery and gynæcology held during the last week of the spring session.
2. The question papers for the competitive examination will be set and other details of the examination carried out by the professor of midwifery who will report to the College Council the results of the examination.
3. The examination will be open to all students of the college and apothecary departments who have attended the classes of midwifery and diseases special to women and the newborn child, held during the autumn and spring sessions at the end of which the examination is to be held, but only students in their regular course of study will be allowed to compete.
