OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(Land Revenue),

Madras, 5th November 1901.

The Honourable Mr. H. A. Sim.

Read letter from A.F. Pinhey Esquire, Collector of Malabar, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, Ref. on G.No. 160E/P-01, dated 2nd October 1901, recommending that Kunju Nair, clerk, Wynad taluk office may be exempted from the age bar and examination rules.

Reference thereon B.No. 621, dated 5th November 1901.

In its order R.No. 511 Educational, dated the 16th August last, Government sanctioned the temporary exemption from the examination rules of M. Kunju Nayar an acting clerk in the Wynaad taluk office, for a period of one year from the 3rd August 1900. The Collector of Malabar now reports that the post of 9th clerk in the Wynaad taluk office has fallen permanently vacant and that both the Tahsildar and the Deputy Collector of Wynaad strongly recommend Kunju Nayar's exemption from the age disqualification and examination rules with a view to his confirmation in that appointment. Mr. Pinhey adds that the candidate ^{is} reported to be a useful and deserving clerk, and submits the necessary application for exemption. A copy of Mr. Dance's letter dated 4th September 1900 embodying the Tahsildar's opinion of Kunju Nayar is also submitted for the information of Government. The Board supports Mr. Pinhey's recommendation and requests that the candidate be permanently exempted from the examination rules so far as appointments on Rs. 15 are concerned.

2. On receipt of the orders of Government on the present reference the Board will deal with the Collector's application for the exemption of Kunju Nayar from the age disqualification disqualification. He is reported to be 29 years of age and to have spent 10 years in the Wynaad which he has no thought of leaving. 3

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith, for favour of obtaining the necessary sanction, an application for exemption from the examination rules of an unpassed candidate named M. Kunju Nair, who has been appointed sub-protam 9th gumasta of the Wynad Taluk Office on a salary of Rs. 15 + a local allowance of Rs. 7½ per mensem. The vacancy is in the Jenmam Registration arrangement.

2. The exemption is recommended as a special case on account of the difficulty of getting passed men from the plains to remain long in Wynad. "Kunju Nair, Menon of Tondernad amsam", I quote from the Tahsildar's report "has given me entire satisfaction, and he is, as far as I can see, quite competent to discharge with efficiency the duties of any clerk of a Taluk Office. Though he is unpassed, he writes a good hand, both English and Malayalam, and his English Composition too is equal, if not superior to that of several other passed clerks of this office. He has been in Wynad for about 10 years now and he has no thought of leaving even his present post (Menon's). If he is given a permanent post of not less than Rs. 15 per mensem in the Taluk office, he will, I am assured, never think of leaving the post. Moreover, as he is an unpassed man he will have no chance elsewhere. My recommendation therefore is that he may be exempted from the examination rules and the age bar and given a permanent post of Rs. 15 at present and declared eligible for promotion in this office only to posts which do not require Special Test qualifications. In justification of the above recommendation, I respectfully beg to take the liberty to submit that from my short experience I have found that the short term clerks have not been taking any lasting interest in their work and that the system gives rise to much confusion and impairs the efficiency of the establishment. On the other hand, ^{the} clerks that are anxious to stick to the place take intelligent interest in their work, work hard and give satisfaction in every way. Besides, the very first attack of the inevitable fever unnerves the new comers and makes them cheerless thereafter".

2. The question of permanently exempting Kunju Nair may be considered when there is a permanent vacancy in the Taluk Office.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
