NOVEMBER.

Regarding the rulings which now govern the disposal of cases arising under the Civil Service Regulations and the Financial Codes.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., Mis. No. 969, Financial, dated 16th December 1890.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 1883, Financial, dated 28th August 1883.

Read—the following extract from circular letter from the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Simla, the 11th August 1883, No. 2601:—

As inconvenience and waste of time are caused by local Governments occasionally addressing direct to this department communications which should be sent to the other departments of the Government of India, I am directed to remind the Government of Madras that only the departments detailed in the margin are administered directly in the Department of Finance and Commerce. All communications relating to the administration of these departments should be addressed to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce.

Excise.	Mint.
Customs.	Account Department.*
Assessed Taxes.*	Merchant Shipping.
Salt.	Ports and Port Dues.
Opium.	Lighthouses and
Stamps.	Light Dues.
Post Office.	Pilot Services.

* Subsequently added.

2. Communications relating to any other branch of the administration, even though they contain application for an increase of expenditure or for any other financial concession, should be addressed to the Government of India in the department in which the service to which the communication relates is administered. The administrative department of the Government of India will make the needful reference to the Department of Finance and Commerce.

J. E. O'CONOR,
Assistant Secretary.

Order—No. 1883, Financial, dated 28th August 1883.

Communicated to departments of the Secretariat for guidance.

(True Extract.)

E. F. WEBSTER,
Acting Chief Secretary.

G.O., No. 717, Financial, dated 18th September 1888.

Read—the following extract from Resolution of the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 4839, dated Simla, the 3rd September 1888:—

Read again—

Resolution in this department, No. 3353, dated 24th November 1879, and Circular No. 2601, dated 11th August 1883.

The Governor-General in Council . . . directs that the orders contained in the resolution of the 24th November 1879 and in paragraph 3 of the circular of the 11th August 1883 be withdrawn, and that all communications relating to pay, allowances, leave and other service rules and privileges in any departments other than those noted in the margin of circular letter, No. 2601, dated 11th August 1883, shall be primarily addressed to that secretariat of the Government of India in which administrative questions relating to the department affected are dealt with.

L. P. SHIRRES,
Offg. Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Order—No. 717, Financial, dated 18th September 1888.

Communicated to all departments of the Secretariat in continuation of G.O., No. 1883, dated 28th August 1883.

(True Extract.)

J. F. PRICE,
Acting Chief Secretary.

Read—also the following Resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 5412, dated Calcutta, the 25th November 1890:—

Read—

Resolution in this department, No. 4839, dated the 3rd September 1888.

Resolution.—In partial modification of previous orders, the Government of India directs that communications regarding the interpretation of the rules in the Civil Service Regulations should be addressed to this department. Applications for the alteration or relaxation of the rules or for special concessions in cases not exactly covered by the rules will continue to be addressed to the secretariat of the Government of India in which administrative questions relating to the department affected are dealt with.

R. A. GAMBLE,
Offg. Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Order—Mis. No. 969, Financial, dated 16th December 1890.

Communicated to all departments of the Secretariat.

2. Cases appertaining to the former of the two classes mentioned in the resolution will, as hitherto, be dealt with in the local department of Finance; all others should be submitted to the administrative department of the Government of India by the local administrative department concerned.

(True Extract.)

J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.

To the Departments of the Secretariat.

G.O., No. 911, Financial, dated 21st November 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Directing that all sanctions under the resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 5102-Ex., dated 25th October 1895, be dealt with in the Financial department.

G.O., No. 342, Financial, dated 19th May 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Directing that all applications for exemption from the operation of article 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations be, in future, dealt with in the Financial department; that Secretariat departments, in transferring such applications to the Financial department, should express an opinion on their validity; and that claims which are obviously inadmissible be dealt with finally by the executive department concerned.

G.O., No. 643, Financial, dated 29th September 1896.

Order—No. 643, Financial, dated 29th September 1896.

Under existing orders cases involving the interpretation of the rules in the Civil Service Regulations as well as applications for exemption from the operation of article 1159 of the regulations and for sanctions under section 278-A of the Civil Account Code are dealt with finally in the local Financial department; applications for the alteration or relaxation of the rules or for special concessions in cases not exactly covered by the rules being, where a reference to the Government of India is required, submitted to the administrative department of that Government by the local administrative department concerned.

2. In partial modification of the above orders, it is directed that all references to the Government of India regarding the rules in the Civil Service Regulations shall, in future, issue from the local Financial department, the draft of the letter being, however, prepared in the department in which such references originated and being previously approved by the Financial department.

MEMORANDUM.

No. 1701, FINANCIAL, DATED 2ND NOVEMBER 1901.

The following rulings now govern the disposal of cases which arise under the Civil Service Regulations and the Financial Codes:—

(1) Claims under article 1093 of the Civil Service Regulations are disposed of finally in the Financial department; but in cases where objection is taken to the claim the draft order is sent for acceptance to the administrative department.

(2) Applications for sanctions under article 278-A of the Civil Account Code and for exemptions from the operation of article 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations are dealt with finally in the Financial department, but claims under these articles which are obviously inadmissible are dealt with finally by the administrative department concerned.

(3) All cases involving the interpretation of the rules in the Civil Service Regulations are dealt with in the Financial department.

(4) All references to the Government of India regarding the rules in the Civil Service Regulations issue from the Financial department, the draft of the letter being prepared in the department in which such references originate and being previously sent to the Financial department for acceptance.

(5) Administrative departments deal with cases which do not fall under articles 1093 or 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations or article 278-A of the Civil Account Code, which do not involve interpretation and which do not require a reference to the Government of India.

2. In modification of rulings (3), (4) and (5) the Government has decided that the following rules shall be observed in future:—

(3) All cases involving the interpretation of the rules in the Financial codes and regulations or the general relaxation of any financial rule including references to the Government of India, shall be dealt with in the Financial department.

(4) Administrative departments shall deal with cases, including references to the Government of India, in which relaxation is recommended on behalf of a particular individual or with a view to cover a single case, provided that such cases do not fall under article 1093 or article 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations or under article 278-A of the Civil Account Code and that the rule under which sanction is given or sought is clear.
