OCTOBER.

Directing that in future the sanction of the Board should be obtained for the exemption of an unpassed candidate in every case in which a vacancy is likely to last for more than six months in the districts enumerated in paragraph 2 (ii) of Standing Order No. 127 or for more than three months in those referred to in paragraph 2 (iv) of the same Standing Order and in which it is expected that the retention of the unpassed candidate will be necessary during the whole of such period.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

The Hon'ble Mr. H. A. SIM.

READ—again the following Proceedings, No. 1949, Routine, dated 13th August 1901, on a letter from the Collector of Nellore submitting an application for the temporary exemption from the examination rules of K. Ramalingayya, Acting 7th Gumasta, Kandukur Taluk office.

Resolution—No. 1949, Routine, dated 13th August 1901.

2. The attention of the Collector is invited to Standing Order No. 127, paragraph 2, clause (iv) (1900 Edition), from which he will see that the exemption of the candidate from the examination rules for a period of three months could have been sanctioned either by himself or by the Divisional-officer.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) A. R. CUMMING,
Acting Secretary.

To the Collector of Nellore.

READ—also the following letter from A. BUTTERWORTH, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 1st October 1901, D. No. 2858-Ver. :—

With reference to paragraph 2 of Board's Proceedings, No. 1949-R., dated 13th August 1901, I have the honour to state that the duration of the vacancy in question was 3 months and 28 days and I believe that Government ruled some years ago that, when a vacancy is expected to last over 3 months, it is not permissible for the Collector to sanction exemption for any portion of it. I cannot find the Government Order in question but think I can trust my memory that it exists.

RESOLUTION—No. 257, dated 28th October 1901.

The Collector's view is correct, being in accordance with the ruling contained in Government Order, No. 584, Educational, dated 11th August 1893, recorded in Board's Proceedings, No. 482, dated the 22nd idem.

2. In future the sanction of the Board should be obtained for the exemption of unpassed candidates in every case in which a vacancy is likely to last for more than six months in the districts enumerated in paragraph 2 (ii) of Standing Order No. 127, or for more than three months in those referred to in paragraph 2 (iv) of the same Standing Order, and in which it is expected that the retention of the unpassed candidate will be necessary during the whole of such period.
