NOVEMBER.

Law College.

Approving the proposals of the Director of Public Instruction for introducing the new scheme for the working of the—from the beginning of the next calendar year and for the re-constitution of the college council.

G.O., No. 447, Educational, dated 12th August 1901.

READ—also the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 2nd November 1901, R.C. No. 7098.

In reply to G.O., No. 447, Educational, dated 12th August last, communicating the sanction of the Secretary of State to the reconstitution of the Law College and enquiring when the new scheme can be brought into operation, I have the honour to state that the college council is of opinion that the scheme may be introduced from the beginning of next year, but in a slightly modified form. It will be two years before the students who have joined the college under the existing three years' system have finished their course, and until then the scheme cannot be fully carried out. As long as they remain in the college, special arrangements will have to be made for their instruction which it is not possible to provide with the newly-constituted staff. The Principal, therefore, recommends the appointment of a special lecturer on a salary of Rs. 350 per mensem from 1st January next, and I beg to support the recommendation. The appointment may for the present be for one year, i.e., 1902, but will have to be renewed for the succeeding year also. Provision for the charge has been made in the budget estimate for 1902-03 in anticipation of sanction.

2. In regard to the assistant lecturers, it is observed that their salaries have been raised to Rs. 250. Apparently, they are to be "whole time" officers. This, however, was not contemplated. It was originally proposed that their salaries should be fixed at Rs. 150 and that they should be obtained as under the present system so that the services of practising lawyers of proved ability may be secured. The salary now offered is not sufficiently attractive and the council is dubious as to the possibility of securing efficient "whole time" men. The Principal, therefore, recommends that the scheme be modified by reducing the salary to Rs. 150 and allowing the assistants private practice. This arrangement, while being more economical, will give the college the benefit of the services of a superior class of legal practitioners, and I strongly recommend the proposal for the favourable consideration of Government. The saving thus caused will partially meet the salary of the special lecturer recommended in paragraph 1.

3. The new scheme supposes a two years' course; but the change from three to two years requires the co-operation of the university. This will be obtained.

4. In regard to the reconstitution of the college council, proposals for which were called for in G.O., No. 518, Educational, dated 13th September 1901, I beg to propose that the following gentlemen be appointed members of the college council:—

President.

The Hon'ble Sir C. A. White, Chief Justice.

Members.

The Hon'ble Mr. Justice R. S. Benson.

" " H. T. Boddam.

" " Justice Sir V. Bhashyam Aiyangar.

" " Mr. J. E. P. Wallis.

Mr. R. B. Michell.

" " R. A. Nelson.

M.R.Ry. C. Ramachandra Rao Sahib.

" " M. O. Parthasaradhi Aiyangar.

The council at present consists of the gentlemen named in the margin. The

Mr. R. B. Michell.

M.R.Ry. M. O. Parthasaradhi Aiyangar.

Mr. J. G. Smith.

M.R.Ry. K. Narayana Rau.

Chief Justice and the Advocate-General should, I think, be on the council, the former as president. They may take the places of Mr. Smith and M.R.Ry. Narayana Rau who should cease to be members. M.R.Ry. C. Ramachandra Rao Sahib was for a long time a professor in the Law College and his services on the council would be useful. If my nominations are approved, I will ask these gentlemen if they are willing to join the committee.

ORDER—No. 681, Educational, dated 21st November 1901.

The Director's proposal to introduce the new scheme from the beginning of next calendar year will be approved, but instead of the special lecturer on Rs. 350 recommended by him a temporary assistant professor on pay not exceeding Rs. 250 per mensem should be employed. The usual proposition statement should be submitted for formal sanction.

2. The pay of Rs. 250 for the assistant professors in the new-scheme may be regarded as the maximum. The Director is at liberty to engage them on any terms so long as that amount is not exceeded, but private practice will be allowed only on the strict understanding that such practice will in no way interfere with their duties in the college. The hours of instruction in the college will in future be between ten or eleven A.M. and four or five P.M.; no departure from those hours should be permitted.

3. The proposals for the re-constitution of the college council are also approved.
