To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I am directed to request that Government may be pleased to permit K. Kuppuswami Aiyar, a clerk in the Correspondence Department of the High Court, to appear for the Revenue Test, Higher Grade, in the circumstances mentioned below: The clerk has passed the First Examination in Arts the Revenue Lower, Account Test Higher, Translation Higher in Tamil and Lower in Telugu and the Precis-writing Test, but, as he is not a Graduate in Arts, he is not entitled to appear for the Revenue Higher Examination under the Special Test notification. He was brought into the establishment of the High Court from the Revenue Department in 1896 with a view to the introduction of the Disposal Number System of Record-keeping and has since then been entrusted with work of a responsible nature which he has performed satisfactorily. The prospects of promotion in the Judicial Department are, however, not very bright and K. Kuppuswami Aiyar wishes to revert to the Revenue Department where prospects of promotion are better. In consideration of K. Kuppuswami Aiyar's good work in this office, I am to recommend that as a special case he may be permitted to appear for the Revenue Test, Higher Grade.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

L. Manuad
Registrar

Educational department.

G.O. of 3-5-01 is rather a dangerous precedent and probably every clerk in the High Court who has given satisfaction & wants exemption will come up with similar requests.

Were there any precedent for such a concession before 3-5-01? I mean where the applicant was not one of the backward classes.

Permission to appear for special tests is very rarely given; please see G.Os No. 743 d/ 1st November 1899 & No. 243 d/ 9th June 1900. In the majority of cases applications are rejected but it was thought that the recommendation of the High Court in a matter of this kind should be respected.

Secretary.

The draft proceeded on this circumstance: The request of the High Court of Judicature seemed to be entitled to consideration even if on general grounds there might be some doubt felt. What Secretary says at the beginning of his note is no doubt correct so far as the clerks are concerned, but it does not follow that the High Court would support the applications, and looking to the fact that not more than five recommendations of the kind have been received from
