The Hon'ble Mr. H. Bradley, I.C.S.

Read the following letter from H.G. Stokes, Esquire, I.C.S.
Ag. Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, Ref. on G.R. No. 2482 of 01, dated 12th November 1901:-

"I have the honour to submit herewith an application for exemption from the Examination rules on behalf of G.Y. Samuel who has been appointed as a permanent clerk in the Madras Town Circle and to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for his exemption under the following circumstances.

2. G.Y. Samuel has passed the late Middle School Examination (held in 1890) in the first class and also the Written and Practical examinations for Teachers' certificates held in 1892 and 1897, respectively. His name was registered for clerk's ~~place~~ place by Mr. Millett. Prior to the publication of the Public Service Notification now in force, candidates who had passed the Middle School Examination in the first class were qualified for employment in superior service and the changes made therein subsequently were not brought, through an oversight, to his notice when Samuel's name was ordered to be registered.
As there was then a want of hands, Samuel was appointed as an acting clerk in my office, where he was employed at the date of my taking charge, and in which post he gave satisfaction. He was eventually appointed by me as a permanent clerk in the Madras Town Circle and has joined the appointment on 11th
October 1901.

3. The man having been appointed presumably under the Impression that he possessed the necessary qualifications it is requested that the exemption now applied for may be sanctioned. A sample of the candidate's hand-writing is enclosed for perusal and favour of return. If the exemption cannot be granted the clerk's appointment will have to be cancelled".

Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidate for whose employment sanction is sought.	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.	The period for which the appointment is expected to last.	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? In the latter case quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has been already exempted.	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result.	Recommendation of the Head of the Department.	REMARKS.
G.Y. Samuel, 25 years. Middle School, first class, held in December 1890. Written Examination for Teachers' certificate in 1892 and Practical Test in 1897.	Clerk or Sub-Inspector permanent.	PERMANENT.	From 11th October 1901.	First application.	vide covering letter.

C. No. 1622

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether the Board's recommendation may be accepted.
2. The act of registering a candidate's name does not carry with it any obligation to employ him when a vacancy occurs, but however that may be, the date of employment as a temporary clerk is not given and if it is very recent there is no reason why the man should be exempted. His employment as a permanent clerk appears to have been hasty.

26/11/11

Under the circumstances, the man be exempted; it would be rather hard on him to refuse after his "permanent" appointment had been notified.
