(Thro' the Accountant-General).

Sir,

I have the honour to request the sanction of Government for the local purchase of warm clothing at a cost of Rs.12 for one of the two peons who accompanied me to Simla in August last.

2. Two peons in my office were supplied with warm clothing in May last when they accompanied me to the Nilgiris. In August I was at Ootacamund where I received orders to attend the Educational Conference at Simla. I left one of the peons in charge of the office records at Ootacamund and selected another peon who was not supplied with warm clothing in his stead to accompany me to Simla. The following articles of clothing had to be purchased for him in the local market from office contingencies in anticipation of the sanction of Government as there was no time for me to obtain the necessary sanction before making the purchase:-

	Rs.	As.
1. new Blanket	2	8
1. Trousers & 1. Coat (second-hand)	7	0
1. Pair of boots (second-hand)	1	8

1. Cap (new)	0	6
	Rs.12	0

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
