NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 748, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 14TH DECEMBER 1901.

[SUBJECT.—Qualifying examination for certain appointments in the Revenue Secretariat.]

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

To Under Secretary—

Under the public service notification as it now stands, the first assistant, the registrar and the head clerk of this office have to pass the revenue and the account tests, higher grade. When the draft of the notification first came for approval, there was no appointment of second assistant in this office.

For orders as to whether the Educational department may be asked to include the second assistant among those who are required to pass the special tests above referred to, when the notification is next republished.

(The present second assistant has passed the tests.)

P. NARAYANA MENON.
23-7-01.

Secretary—

"Second assistant" should be included as a post for which the revenue and account tests, higher, must be passed.

I have also discussed with the Secretary the expediency of prescribing the "revenue (higher)" test for some of the senior clerkships. Secretary agrees that all clerks in the Revenue Secretariat on Rs. 70 and upwards should be required to have passed this test. It is essential that those clerks who prepare office notes should have carefully studied the Revenue Regulations and the Board's Standing Orders. If Educational has no objection, they may be asked to issue the necessary addenda to the public service notification.

Revenue department u.o.

There does not, it is submitted, appear to be any objection to accepting the draft below.

There are at present three clerks in the office—two (E. Singaravelu Mudalivar and M. Sundararaja Aiyar) getting Rs. 80 each and one (Ethirajulu Nayudu) getting Rs. 70 permanent—who have not passed the revenue test, higher grade.

Orders are requested as to whether they should be compelled to pass the examination within a specified period or whether they should be informed that they will receive no further promotion unless and until they pass the tests.

P. NARAYANA MENON.
7-12-01.

The draft may be accepted. The clerks referred to in the office note above may, it is thought, be informed that they will receive no further promotion till they pass the revenue test, higher grade.
