NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

It is stated that the vacancy in this case is permanent. There is therefore no point in granting a temporary exemption. Mr. Baidas should be permanently exempted or the application should be refused but the Board does not ask for permanent exemption for which perhaps there are no proper grounds.

By The Board may perhaps be asked.

14/12/11

There is certainly no sense in exempting him temporarily. He is forty years old & appears to have been in the service for about half that time. He is said to be good at detecting. He may be permanently exempted.

But asks the Board to explain why they do not recommend a permanent exemption?
