Educational Department,

MADRAS.

Sir,

In acknowledging your letter No. 736 of the 11th inst we very much regret we have no competent person in our staff to hold an examination in taking & valuing of the stock of metal & finished & unfinished work in the Aluminium branch of the local school of arts on the last day of the calendar year. Nor can we recommend anyone to do the work.

We have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servants,

No. 761 dated 17th Dec. 1901

Gentlemen,

The Accountant General is about to carry out under the orders of Government an examination of the aluminium branch of the local School of Arts. An important part of this examination will be the taking and valuing of the stock of metal and finished and unfinished work on the last day of the calendar year, and to do this properly the Accountant General's representative will require the assistance of some one who is practically acquainted with the work of the kind. I am directed to enquire whether you can assist Government in this matter by recommending a competent person. The stock ^{to be} ~~will~~ be taken during the Christmas holidays. The Government will be prepared to pay a suitable fee.
