NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 766, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
18TH DECEMBER 1901.

[SUBJECT.—Stock-taking—Aluminium.]

Honourable Member—

Mr. Dobbie, the Accountant-General, has just been here about the stock-taking. Mr. Chatterton has been representing to him that it will be very inconvenient that stock-taking should be carried on in the Christmas holidays, because—

- (1) he has a very large stock in hand now and it will be a tedious process;
- (2) a large amount of his stock will be at the Madras fair, where he is having an exhibition thereof.

Mr. Dobbie says that December 31st was proposed by him, as he thought the aluminium business would be closed then. This is, however, not so.

2. It appears that Mr. Chatterton intends to decrease his stock steadily from this up to the end of the financial year, i.e., he will buy no more raw material.

Mr. Dobbie accordingly suggests that the stock-taking might be postponed till March. He says his man would meanwhile go on with the examination of the accounts. This work would take a month about and the stock-taking about a week. It would probably take much longer if done now when stock is at its maximum.

Mr. Dobbie thinks the stock-taking would be easier and would be better done if it is left to the end.

That is so. However, an examination of the books will show something and the stock-taking will begin with 1st March.

3. Honourable Member apparently wished to know at an early date how the business stood financially, but otherwise there seems to be no particular hurry, as we have committed ourselves as to our expenditure this year and the next.
