To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the enclosure for building grant on behalf of the Deaf and Dumb Palamcottah. The different items for which grant is applied for are given in a statement attached to the estimates.

2. Excluding the expenditure on account of teachers' house and the fees paid for the registration of the sale deed---Rs 1012, the total cost amounts to Rs 14022-5-2 and I beg to recommend that a third grant of Rs 4674 be sanctioned to be paid when funds become available.

3. This is the first institution started in this Presidency for the education of the deaf and dumb. It has been in existence for upwards of five years and has been doing very good work. About seventy two pupils have already passed through the school, and according to a report received in May last, there were then under instruction as many as 58 pupils. With the improved accommodation, which it is now proposed to supply, the usefulness of the institution will be considerably extended. The school was for some years held in rented buildings but towards the close of last year had to be given up as these buildings fell fell into a dilapidated condition. Soon after, however, the present site with its hydropathic hospital building was available for sale, and the manager not wishing to lose the opportunity of procuring a permanent and suitable habitation for the school, purchased it, and made certain alterations in the building without previously obtaining the necessary sanction for a grant, as required under Rule 112 of the Grant-in-Aid Code. This procedure, though irregular, may, as a special case, be overlooked.

4. The Executive Engineer, who examined the buildings &c. reports that the estimates are reasonable, and that the buildings have been completed according to the enclosed plans and estimates submitted by the manager. The sale deed is herewith submitted for reference and kind return.

5. Out of the allotment of Rs 45,000 for building grants in the current year's Budget Estimate, payment of Rs 41,399 has been authorized up to date.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.
