Sir,

In 1885, a book was written by Veterinary Surgeon 1st Class, Symonds and myself on "Veterinary Materia Medica" for --
B. which your Government paid an honorarium of Rs. 500/- and thus purchased the copyright. I am given to understand that the book is now out of print. I have the honour, therefore, to enquire whether your Government intend to reprint the book. If not, I shall be glad to know if I may do so and receive back the copyright free of charge, as the book will, to bring it up to-date, have to be practically re-written. I may mention that my colleague Mr. Symonds died several years ago. An early reply will oblige.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Sir,

With reference to memorandum No 321, Educational, dated 28th ultimo, referring to me for remarks letter from the Principal, Bombay Veterinary College (herewith returned) in regard to the reprint of "Veterinary Materia Medica," I have the honour to state that as it is reported that the book requires rewriting to bring it up to date, a reprint of it in its present form will be of no use. In these circumstances I submit that the copyright of Government in the book may be resigned.

C. No. 164 & 1738 / 1900

 FOR ORDERS.

The draft order below may, with the Hon. Secy's approval, issue. As stated in a note ^{written} last summer in connection with another case of copyright, the question of ownership of copyright in an edition of a work which was so different from previous editions as to constitute something quite apart, would be for the Courts. Relinquishment in a formal manner of what Govt. may possibly perhaps not possess would be rather absurd. Every thing which the author can devise is given him by the draft order. When the new edition comes out, he should register it & himself as
