To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that permission may be granted to Mr. E. Marsden, Inspector of schools, Central Circle, to sell four houses which he owns in Bangalore.

Mr. Marsden purchased these houses and two others in 1896.

The transaction was reported to Government, who, in G.O. No 1138, dated 21st October 1896, reprimanded Mr. Marsden "for acting in the manner reported without previously taking the orders of Government." Thereupon Mr. Marsden was directed by Dr. Duncan to take prompt steps to dispose of the property except what he might require for his personal use. Owing to plague and other causes which have depreciated house property in Bangalore he has hitherto been unable to carry out this order except at a sacrifice that could not be expected of him. He has however now received from a syndicate an offer for four of the six houses and this offer he is anxious to accept.

The price paid by Mr. Marsden for the four houses in 1896 was Rs. 60,000 and he has since spent Rs. 3,000 upon them. The price now offered to him is Rs. 40,000 payable in three equal instalments in three years.

The names of the members of the purchasing syndicate are :-

1. T. Nagoji Rao (son of the late T. Ramachandra Rao late Deputy Commissioner of Police, Madras) house owner and money lender.
2. Suryanarayana Rao B.A. proprietor of the Astrological Magazine. House owner and money lender.
3. B. Raghaviah B.A. B.L. attorney at law, High Court, Madras.

None of these men is in Government service. Mr. Marsden appears to think that they may be included in the class of "regular dealers" referred to by the Government of India in its notification

No 53, dated 20th January 1882, but as I do not think so I make this application. Mr. Marsden is anxious to complete the transaction as soon as possible and it is desirable that he should do so, therefore I request that Government will issue early orders.

Mr. Marsden states that he hopes to sell the remaining two houses in the course of the next two or three months.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.
