Miss Arnold.

Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction and the Accountant-General sanction of the Government of India to the continuance to —, third inspectress of girls' schools, of such moiety of the house-rent allowance granted in 1898 as will bring her salary up to Rs. 430 a month.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following paper:—

G.O., Mis. Nos. 670, 671, Educational, dated 18th November 1901.

Read—the following letter from the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-law, Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 22nd October 1901, Cur. No. 7978:—

In its order communicated in G.O., No. 109, Educational, dated 19th February 1898, the Government of India sanctioned to Miss Arnold, then Superintendent of the Presidency training school for mistresses, Madras, the continuance of the house allowance of Rs. 80 a month, on the understanding that it should be absorbed as increments to her salary accrued. Under this order, provision was made in the current year's budget for a rent allowance of Rs. 40, her pay as superintendent having risen to Rs. 390. She has now been appointed third inspectress on a salary of Rs. 400—10—450, and in consequence of this change in her appointment will presumably lose the rent allowance granted to her as superintendent. As, however, it has been ruled that her total monthly emoluments should not be reduced, it is necessary that her pay as third inspectress should be fixed at Rs. 430 till she earns three increments in her new appointment or till she obtains promotion on higher pay. I am consequently providing, in anticipation of the sanction of Government, for a pay of Rs. 430 for her in the budget estimates for 1902—1903. I have the honour, in the circumstances set forth above, to request that Government will be pleased to allow the provision to stand and at the same time to obtain the sanction of the Government of India, if necessary, for Miss Arnold's pay being fixed at Rs. 430 from the date of her appointment as third inspectress.

No. G. 3329/7788.

The sanction of the Government of India will be necessary to the grant of a house-rent allowance of Rs. 30 a month to Miss Arnold in her new appointment of inspectress of girls' schools.

Order—Mis. No. 670, Educational, dated 18th November 1901.

The Government of India will be addressed.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

Letter—Mis. No. 671, Educational, dated 18th November 1901, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home department.

In your letter No. 42, Educational, dated 5th February 1898, you conveyed the sanction of the Government of India to the continuance to Miss Arnold, Superintendent of the Presidency training school for mistresses, of a house allowance of Rs. 80 a month, on the understanding that the allowance would be absorbed as increments to her salary accrued. Under this sanction Miss Arnold was drawing a house allowance of Rs. 40, her pay as superintendent having risen to Rs. 390, when she was appointed to the newly created post of third inspectress of girls' schools on Rs. 400—10—450. In consequence of this change in her appointment, she has lost her claim to the house allowance. But in consideration of the circumstances under which the allowance was granted, I am directed to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to the continuance to her of an allowance making up her income to Rs. 430 until, three years later, her proper salary has reached that amount. The alternative arrangement of fixing Miss Arnold's pay at Rs. 430 per mensem from date of appointment as inspectress until such time as she had earned three instalments or was promoted would be equivalent to anticipation of increments and as such contrary to the spirit of article 167 of the Civil Service Regulations.

C. J. WEIR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

Read—also the following paper:—

From A. WILLIAMS, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home department (Education), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational department, dated Calcutta, the 21st December 1901, No. 648.

In reply to your letter No. 671, dated 18th November 1901, I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India are pleased to sanction the continuance to Miss Arnold, third inspectress of schools, of such moiety of the house-rent allowance sanctioned in Home department letter No. 42, dated 5th February 1898, as will bring her present salary up to Rs. 430 a month, and subject to the condition that the allowance will be absorbed as increments to her salary accrue.

ORDER—No. 7, Educational, dated 6th January 1902.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 670-71, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 18TH NOVEMBER 1901.

[SUBJECT.—Continuance of house allowance to Miss Arnold, third inspectress of girls' schools.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 22nd October 1901, Cur. No. 7978.

For the Assistant Secretary—

The Accountant-General may be asked u.o. whether there is any objection to Miss Arnold's pay in her new appointment being fixed at Rs. 430 under article 171 of the Civil Service Regulations.

P. T. THARYAN.
2-11-01.

Yes.

A. T. PRINGLE.

Accountant-General u.o.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Article 171 will not help as Miss Arnold was not drawing in her old appointment a pay in excess of the minimum pay of her new appointment. In her old appointment Miss Arnold was only drawing a pay of Rs. 390, although she was also in receipt of a house allowance of Rs. 40.

W. DOBBIE.
5-11-01.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The Accountant-General, it will be seen, lays stress on the letter of the article * rather than on the spirit. Application

* Accountant-Generals cannot as a rule go beyond the letter. "Pay" has a definite meaning (article 47 of the Civil Service Regulations) and cannot include house allowance. The objection is fatal.

A. T. PRINGLE.
8-11-01.

may therefore be made to the Government of India for permission to Miss Arnold's pay being fixed at Rs. 430 from the date of her appointment as third inspectress until such time as she shall have earned the first three of her increments or is promoted. This seems to be better than paying her a house-rent of Rs. 30.

India may be addressed, but I think it would be safer to ask for the house-rent allowance. There is a strong objection to the anticipation of increments.
