FURTHER PAPERS.

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I am directed by the Honourable the Chief Justice to request that T. Ramaswami Nayudu may be exempted from the Examination Rules with a view to his being appointed a peon of the High Court. The special reason on which this application for exemption is based is that -- T. Ramaswami Nayudu has long been a personal attendant of the Honourable Sir V. Bhashyam Iyengar and his Lordship has trained him to make himself useful in looking after papers arranging books of reference and so forth and his Lordship (with the approval of the Honourable the Chief Justice) wishes to employ him permanently in that capacity in the High Court.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. Channay
Registrar.

NOTE FOR THE A.S.

A draft placed below granting the exemption sought. But should it issue? It does not appear that the grounds mentioned are sufficient. If an unpassed man could be trained up, a passed man can ^{easily pick up the work} be found to take his place without any such elaborate training. Moreover Sir Bhashyam may leave the High Court soon but the peon will remain.

I think we may in courtesy oblige Sir Bhashyam Iyengar, as a judge of the high court, by stretching a point! If nothing had been said about the personal side of the question & the C.J. speaking for the court had asked that the peon might be exempted, we would have said yes, & it is unnecessary to refuse merely because the extraordinary course of letting just behind the scenes has been taken.
