SUBJECT

Govt. Training School, Coimbatore

FOR ORDERS.

R

In the Director's letter no. 11380, dated 7th October 1899 read in G.O. No. 191 of 29th March 1900, he brought to notice the very insanitary condition of the building occupied by the Govt. Training School, Coimbatore, owing to the existence in close proximity to it of three private latrines and a cowshed, and requested that steps might be taken to acquire the plot of land on which the latrines and shed stood. He was then asked to report whether legal steps could not be taken to compel the parties to keep the shed and latrines clean. In reply he stated that instructions ^{had been} issued to the sanitary inspector to prosecute the parties concerned if the place was not kept clean and that

meanwhile the question of applying the Land acquisition act might stand over-

2. In August last the Director wrote to say that the action taken had not the desired effect and that the place was generally in a filthy condition. He therefore urged that the Land acquisition act might be applied without further delay. He was thereupon asked to ascertain and report the cost involved. vide G.P.O. R.N. 556 of 9th Sept. 1901. He now reports that the cost will approximately be Rs. 4,000 according to the valuation made by the Tahsildar under the orders of the Collector. The amount seems to be somewhat prohibitive. Orders are solicited. If it is decided to acquire the Land, the Director will be asked how the cost can be met.

M
The latrines & cowsheds, even if not kept in a filthy state, are of course a nuisance, but while admitting that, Govt. need not pay Rs. 4,000 to get rid of them. There should not be any superhuman difficulty in ^{compelling the owners to} keeping them clean.
The sanitary inspector ^{however} appears to be unequal to the task.

Then he is unfit for his position.
It is absurd that Govt. should be called upon to pay Rs. 4,000. because the Municipal Staff will not do their duty.

The Bhawan may be directed thro' the Collector to see that the latrines & cowsheds are kept clean & to report at the end of 6 months how far this order has been obeyed.
