To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Political Department.

Sir,

Under G.O. No. 557 dated 12th August 1898 "Political", I have the honour to forward the accompanying petition from Mr. Abd. din Ali to the address of His Excellency the Governor-in-Council with the following remarks:-

2. Petitioner prays for an exemption from the operations of the examination rules with a view to enter the Public Service and earn a livelihood, on the grounds of the straitened circumstances of his father, and the same indulgence having been granted to his uncles and others.

3. Petitioner's connection is as he states, he is a young man of good family and is about 24 years old, of poor physique and fair practical education. He applied for a post in the Salt department and was told that he should first get himself exempted (vide endorsement herein enclosed). Should Government see no objection I consider him as deserving of the indulgence as any others.

I have the honour to be
Sir
your most obedient servant

Madras, 10th January 1902.

To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,
FORT SAINT GEORGE.

THROUGH THE PAYMASTER OF CARNATIC STIPENDS, MADRAS.

The humble petition of Naruddin Ali residing at No. 48 Jain Jehan Khan
Road, Triplicane, Madras.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That Your Excellency's petitioner is the son of Mohammed Saduck Husain Sahib and the grandson of the late Assad Husain Khan Sahib Carnatic Stipendiary No. 1316-G.

That your humble petitioner was, during the life time of his grand-father, the above named Assad Husain Khan Sahib and that of his late maternal uncle Subadar Major Mukhs Ali Khan of 14th M.I. (who was well known to the Government as the first Member of the Carnatic Family, who received a direct commission from His Excellency the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India ^{and} served in the Madras Army) in a position to educate and support himself through the pecuniary aid they allowed him in consequence of his father being in straitened circumstances on account of failure in his business, and that now Your Excellency's petitioner feels it very hard to the common necessities of life, much less to pay his way to a University Course.

He is therefore obliged to discontinue his studies and put his case before Your Excellency's Government for kind consideration and sympathy.

That Your Excellency's humble petitioner has read up to the standard in the Harris High School and endeavoured to the best of his abilities to push himself forward; but for the want of means to pay the expenses of his education and maintenance he is compelled to abandon the idea of passing the Matriculation Examination for the present and seek an exemption from the operation of the Upper Secondary Examination with the view of enabling him to enter the public service and earn a livelihood for himself and to be a support to his aged father now in quite a poverty-stricken state.

That Your Excellency's petitioner in submitting this memorial to Your Excellency for an exemption, most respectfully states that his case is quite analogous with other members of the Carnatic Family, some of whom (Ahmed Ali Sahib and Rara Hussain Sahib) bear close relationship with the petitioner, being the petitioner's own maternal uncles and who have been most graciously granted exemptions. He is also one of the relics of this once illustrious but now decaying family, being the great grandson of Nawab Saduttalla Khan former Sovereign of the Carnatic. He is lineally descended from Nawab Muklis Ali Khan, the famous cousin of Nawab Chunda Sahib. The petitioner is also a near relation of Rahuth-umsa Begum Sahiba and Padsha Begum Sahiba the first ladies of Nawab Amir-ul-umra and Wallajah respectively. Besides he is a great grand nephew of Nawab Padsha Begum Sahib, daughter of the Jagirdar of Kulva and the wife of Nawab Asim-ud-Dowla of the Carnatic fame.

He humbly trusts that Your Excellency in Council will be graciously pleased to treat his case on the same lines as other members of his family and grant him the Exemption prayed for.

For which act of kindness and charity Your humble petitioner as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Excellency's Most Humble Servant,

Nuruddin Ali //

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether the exemption applied for should be granted. There appears to be no special grounds for it except perhaps that the applicants' uncles were previously exempted.

2. The Paymaster in forwarding the application says that the applicant is a young man of good family and of fair practical education, but of poor physique. This is however a disqualification.
