Making certain appointments in the —, and informing the Secretary of State for India that the officer selected for the post of junior professor should arrive about the end of July next.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 17th January 1902, Ref. on C. No. 208.

With reference to G.O., No. 681, Educational, dated 21st November last, I have the honour to recommend that M.R.Ry. Pudukkottai Ramachandra Ganapati Aiyar, B.A., B.L., and M.R.Ry. Tiruvenkatachiarai Rajagopalachariyar, M.A., B.L., be appointed first and second assistant professors respectively in the Law college on a salary of Rs. 250 per mensem. Out of thirty-six applicants, these two gentlemen were selected by the College Council, who are also of opinion that the assistants should be full-time men. Hence the recommendation that they should be paid the full maximum salary sanctioned for the post. The Principal recommends that if these gentlemen are engaged for five years there should be a distinct provision that their services may be dispensed with at a term's notice, and I endorse his recommendation.

2. As no orders have yet been received regarding the appointment of the junior professor, the Principal recommends that, until the arrival of the officer to be selected by the Secretary of State, Mr. J. G. Smith, Barrister-at-Law, may be appointed to the post on the same terms of remuneration as hitherto, viz., a fee of Rs. 1,800, for the spring term, which may be proportionately reduced on the arrival of the new officer. Such an arrangement is necessary to carry on the work of the college during the term, and I beg to request that it may be sanctioned.

3. I beg to solicit the favour of early orders.

ORDER—No. 59, Educational, dated 4th February 1902.

M.R.Ry. P. R. Ganapati Aiyar and M.R.Ry. T. Rajagopalachariyar will accordingly be appointed first and second assistant professors in the Law college on Rs. 250 each per mensem. The appointments will be subject to a term's notice on either side, counting from the commencement of the current term, and for the present will hold good for one year. The service will not be pensionable.

2. Mr. J. G. Smith will be appointed to act as junior professor in the Law college up to the 28th of July next and will during the acting period draw an allowance of Rs. 325 per mensem with retrospective effect from the date of his taking charge.

3. The following telegram will be despatched to the Secretary of State:—

My telegram of 9th December last. As no officer has been selected yet, we have been obliged to make [a] temporary appointment for the period ending 28th July next. We consider it advisable that the officer you may appoint should arrive about same date.

FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.O.No. 681, Educational, dated 21st November last, I have the honour to recommend that M.R.Ry. Pudukottai Ramachandra Ganapati Aiyar B.A., B.L., and M.R.Ry. Thiruvengkatachariar Rajagopalachariar M.A., B.L., be appointed first and second assistant Professors respectively in the Law College, on a salary of Rs 250 per mensem. Out of 36 applicants, these two gentlemen were selected by the College Council who are also of opinion that the assistants should be full-time men. Hence the recommendation that they should be paid the full maximum salary sanctioned for the post. The Principal recommends that if these gentlemen are engaged for five years there should be a distinct provision that their services may be dispensed with at a term's notice and I endorse his recommendation.

2. As no orders have yet been received regarding the appointment of the Junior Professor, the Principal recommends that, until the arrival of the officer to be selected by the Secretary of State, Mr. J.G. Smith, Barrister-at-Law, may be appointed to the post on the same terms of remuneration as hitherto, viz, a fee of Rs 1200 for the spring term, which may be proportionately reduced on the arrival of the new officer. Such an arrangement is necessary to carry on the work of the College during the term and I beg to request that it may be sanctioned.
