SUBJECT

Permission to appear for special test examinations.

FOR ORDERS.

The Collector of Seacustoms, madras, forwards petitions from certain clerks of his office requesting that the concession granted to persons who had passed the general test examination or the middle school examination in the first class, enabling them to appear for the special tests until the 1st. January 1902 may be continued. This concession was granted in G.O. no. 584 Edl, 8/21st. Sept: 1896. The present applicants had thus over four years' time to pass the tests. They do not say what attempts they made during this period and it is very unlikely that an extension of the period will benefit them much. Besides, the question is a general one affecting all general test and middle school men. The collector does does not support the applications. They may ~~in these circumstances therefore~~ be refused.

PH
6/2/2

Even if the Coll[r] had supported the applications, it would have been very questionable whether under all the circumstances, it would have been right to accede to the request preferred; as it is, there (is, I think,) no reason for hesitating. The ~~pe~~ note above states the case very fairly, & I submit that the petition should be rejected.

(The plea of long service is put forward by all the petitioners but as a matter of fact six out of the fifteen have been in Govt employ for less than ten years.)
