FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The ~~Chief~~ Secretary to Government, Educational ~~Political~~ Department.

Sir,

Under G.O. No. 793 dated 14th October 1899 Political I have the honour to forward the accompanying petition from Carnatic Spondiary No. 263 Hussaini Begum to His — Excellency the Governor with the following remarks.

2. Petitioner draws a pension of Rs 15/- per mensem — under E. M. C. dated 2nd November 1847 and she prays — that her son may be exempted from the operation of the examination rules with a view to his being entertained in any office on a salary of Rs 15 or 20. He is now employed in the Board office on Rs 10/- per mensem. As he is about 40 years of age and he appears almost illiterate I am of opinion — that her request for his exemption cannot be complied with.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Yours most obedient servant

A. J. P. Jomby Major
Paymaster, Carnatic Sponds Chepauk.

To,

His Excellency, Lord Ampthill G. C. I. E., Governor of Fort St George.

Through,

The Paymaster, Carnatic Spondiary,

The humble memorial of Hussaini
Begum, Carnatic Spondiary, Triplicane, Madras.

Most respectfully sheweth,

That your humble memorialist is an old Carnatic pensioner and that she belongs to an ancient and respectable family of Nawab Wallajah of Carnatic.

2. That during the lifetime of her grandfather, Nawab Abdul Hamid, Khan Bahadur he was enjoying a pension of Rs 32 per mensem.
On his death, his son, the memorialist's father, Gulam Mustafa Khan Bahadur was given a pension of Rs 107 per month, and on his death his son was given a monthly pension of Rs 30; his wife and two daughters including your humble memorialist were given monthly pension of Rs 15 each. Her mother and brother have died; her sister has surrendered her pension to the Government for a lump sum. So out of those four persons she is now the only one that draws a pension of Rs 15.

3. That she is now old and infirm, and cannot expect to live for any long period and her anxiety is about her children. Of the two sons and one daughter she had, out of the sons died; the other son & the daughter are now living. As already stated her income is only Rs 15 per month. Consequently she was not in a position to give them a sound higher education, but she has given them a thorough elementary education as far as her humble means permitted.

4. Sometime ago her surviving son Hussain Ali was exempted from Primary examination rules and as such was given a place in the office of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue) on Rs 10 per month. Owing to various causes this small sum of Rs 10 is hardly sufficient for the maintenance of his family. Consequently your humble memorialist is put to the necessity of handing him over her limited income of Rs 15, and even the total which comes to Rs 25 is quite insufficient to maintain a family of seven souls including your humble memorialist. Further she fears that the Rs 15 which she can contribute cannot last for any very long time owing to her extreme old age.

5. Under the foregoing circumstances he begs leave to approach your Excellency with a special request that her son Hussain Ali may be exempted from the necessary examination rules for employment in the

of superior

superior service and that he may be recommended to some sub-ordinate authority for any post of Rs 15 or 20.

6. That she acknowledges with extreme gratitude the good things which she and her son enjoy at the hands of the benign government and that she further prays that this request of a poor old widow may be granted.

For which act of kindness the memorialist shall in duty bound ever pray, Triplicane.
