NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The papers on the subject of the retention for Mr. Weir's use of the telephone connecting the central exchange with the house at the Adyar formerly occupied by the Hon'ble Mr. Grundle are put up. Orders have now to issue about the removal of the wires from that house.

The Secretary ^(Mr. Hammer) would probably like to have them put on to his house. The charges on account of the connection with Mr. Weir's house would be met from office contingencies. Mr. Weir promised to bear a portion of them but it was thought that this was not feasible. If the Secretary's house is now connected with the exchange the charges may likewise be met from contingencies.

M.M.

In the cold weather with plague cases numerous and legislative work going on, select Committees etc. it is probably convenient to Mr. M. & the Secretary that the telephone should be at his house. If Mr. M. is consent, orders will be given to have it put up in my house. I may say that unless some thing unforeseen occurs I shall continue to use my house for the
