To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request you to be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for an expenditure of Rs.560 during 1902-03 on temporary establishment required in connection with the Compilation of Statistics for the Public Instruction Report for 1901-02 and for the tabulation and publication of Results grants lists.

2. In the budget a sum of Rs.200 more than the usual allotment of Rs.360 has been provided to meet the cost of the additional establishment required in connection with the preparation of the Quinquennial Report due this year. As an economical and expedient arrangement, I propose to entrust the Compilation of Statistics and the preparation of the necessary maps to experienced clerks on my establishment and to pay them under article 89 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations an honorarium not exceeding Rs.200 on the whole. A similar arrangement was sanctioned in G.O.No 497, Educational, dated 28th August 1897 in connection with the Quinquennial Report for 1896-1897. I request the sanction of Government also to this proposal.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G.H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The proposal contained in paragraph 1 of the Director's letter may be sanctioned. But it is for consideration whether that in para. 2, namely, to entrust the compilation of statistics and the preparation of the necessary maps to experienced clerks on the establishment should be approved. A precedent is quoted but extra payment for a part of the office work is bad in principle and the practice should not, it is submitted, be encouraged. If the clerks have time to do the work they should do it without extra remuneration. If not, it is well that they do not attempt it. There are not many responsible subordinates in the Secretariat who do not find it necessary to do a portion of their work at home, but they cannot think of any extra remuneration for it.
