FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that orders be issued for the preparation of a plan and an estimate for the erection in the play ground of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, at an approximate cost of Rs.1500, of a pavilion as shown in the accompanying pencil sketch furnished by the Consulting Architect. The Principal reports that no provision of any kind exists at present for shelter for the students and pupils engaged in outdoor sports and games. The sketch provides also for a room for the safe custody of the materials for games.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G H Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The proposed pavilion appears to be somewhat of a luxury, but need not, it is thought, be objected to. If approved, the Director's letter will be transferred to the P.W.D. for the necessary action.

Which might be put at say Rs.1000, for its building - I am not sure whether such a building is necessary. A small room to keep the game material, would seem all that is necessary.

I don't think it is necessary and I am not sure they have already cover for their games stock. We are spending a lot on the Teachers' College for building & furniture. It is not to have nonsense of this sort.

order The Govt. does not consider the building necessary.

SA
The Secy. is <sup>merely</sup> giving instructions for a draft. Of course we do not under the present system combine notes & disburse.
The draft indicated should be written on a Pro. form & submitted [to H.S.] for initials

The course prescribed at B is <sup>practically</sup> ~~more or less~~ what is always* done, the only difference <sup>being that</sup> the Secretary's initials are typed ~~at~~ below the draft. Please see the specimen placed below. This is apparently all that the A.S. thinks necessary.
In this particular instance the file went to the
A.S. by mistake without the typed draft.

This explains
the matter.

I have been thinking of you and how much I have enjoyed your company for the past few days. I am sure you will find it very interesting.
