Extract from Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 57 (Judicial), dated the 27th December 1901.

2. I have already drawn your Excellency's attention to the frequent delays which have occurred in the submission of requests for the renewal of sanction to the continuance of temporary appointments. It is very desirable that questions of this nature should be brought to the notice of your Government in time to allow full enquiry to be made into the necessity for incurring the additional expenditure, and I request that instructions to this effect may be addressed to the Local Governments and Administrations.

Resolution.—In the resolution of March 1886, the Governor-General in Council directed that applications for renewal of the sanction given to temporary appointments which would require a reference to the Secretary of State should be made to the Government of India in sufficient time to admit of their consideration and report to the Secretary of State before the termination of such sanction. These orders were not always observed, and His Excellency in Council was constrained to issue a second resolution in 1898, reiterating the provisions of the previous resolution, and directing that every endeavour should be made to apply for sanction to the continuance of temporary appointments and deputations or allowances in sufficient time to prevent the sanction of the Secretary of State having to be anticipated.

2. The Governor-General in Council has observed with regret that, notwithstanding the issue of repeated injunctions, the infringement of the rule has been of frequent occurrence during recent years; and both the Government of India and the Secretary of State have on several occasions had to notice delay in referring cases in which their sanction was required. It appears to His Excellency in Council that the importance of the rule has not been sufficiently realized. In cases in which by rule the sanction of the Government of India or of the Secretary of State is necessary, the effect of such rule is rendered illusory by the delays which are allowed to occur in their submission. The cases are, by lapse of time, practically prejudged, and there is no option but to sanction the proposals with retrospective effect. The financial control of the Government of India and of the Secretary of State is in these circumstances rendered nugatory. The Governor-General in Council is unable to accept such a situation as satisfactory, and he desires that in future more active steps should be taken to secure due observance of the existing orders. It is essential that questions of the kind should be brought to the notice of the Government of India in time to allow full enquiry to be made into the necessity for incurring the additional expenditure.

Order.—Ordered that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the several departments of the Government of India, to the several Local Governments and Administrations, and also to the heads of departments subordinate to the Finance and Commerce Department, for information and guidance.

H. J. McINTOSH,
Depy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ORDER—No. 277, Financial, dated 27th March 1902.

In drawing attention to the foregoing orders, the Government directs that applications for sanction to the continuance of temporary appointments and deputations or allowances should invariably be submitted in sufficient time to allow of full enquiry being made and to admit of the orders of superior authority being obtained before the termination of the existing sanction.
