NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

Orders are requested as to whether the Director's proposal to purchase the engine may be approved. It should apparently have been included in the indent for the machinery brought out from England.

The purchase is sanctioned

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

The Officer in charge of the Aluminium Department reports that the provision of engine power is absolutely necessary to work the machinery lately received from England and consequently applies for the sanction of Government to the purchase at a cost of Rs. 2318 of an oil engine with the necessary accessories from Messrs. Massey & Co., Madras. I request that the purchase may be sanctioned.

2. The charge can be met from the provision made for tools and plant in the budget estimate of the Aluminium Department for 1902-03.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart
Director of Public Instruction.
