EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 216, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 17TH APRIL 1902.

[SUBJECT.—Remuneration to the Board of Examiners, College of Engineering.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, R.C. No. 1525, dated 27th March 1902.

For the Assistant Secretary—

Under article 89 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, the local Government can sanction payment of honoraria up to Rs. 500. Above this amount and up to Rupees 1,000 the sanction of the Government of India is necessary, and above Rs. 1,000 that of the Secretary of State. Under article 89 (d), however, if the amount of fees levied is sufficient to cover the honoraria of the examiners, the local Government can sanction payment without reference to any limit.

2. In the present case the amount of honoraria due is Rs. 3,243-8-0 and of fees collected over Rs. 10,000. The latter figure, however, includes fees paid for admission to the entrance examination of the college of Engineering. It has been recently ascertained that the fees for admission to the final examination are generally less than the honoraria payable. Orders are therefore requested whether for the purposes of article 89 (d) the examinations should be taken as a whole, or whether the final examination should be treated separately: in the latter case, the payment to Rai Sahib S. A. Subrahmanya Aiyar will require the sanction of the Government of India. Mr. Strange who also gets over Rs. 500 is a non-official.

P. T. THARYAN.
2-4-02.

It seems to me unnecessary to raise this point in the present connection. For the purposes of article 89 (d) the examination may certainly be taken together. Please draft an order sanctioning payment accordingly.

A. T. PRINGLE.

The draft below may issue.

Submitted to Honourable Member with draft order.

M. HAMMICK.
5-4-02.

The fees are for appearing at the entrance examination and are paid whether the candidate gets in or not.

M. HAMMICK.
10-4-02.

I cannot very well see how fees for admission to the college of Engineering can be lumped with the fees levied from the "candidates appearing at an examination". Please say.

J. T. [HOMSON].
9-4-02.

H.M.—

The matter was discussed the other day when the Director of Public Instruction submitted proposals for rearranging the fees at the final examination. The fees at the entrance to the college are not fees for entering the college but fees for the examination that takes place, and the proposal is to lump together the two sets of examinations, the entrance examination and the final examination. As no honoraria are paid to the examiners at the entrance examination, the examination being conducted by the college staff with no extra remuneration, the total fees are proposed to be set off against the expenses of the final examination and thus an ample balance is shown.

2. I submit the course proposed is not objectionable, the fees are all distinctly examination fees, and it seems immaterial that the Government does not pay the examiners for the first examination but only for the final. The fees may be credited against both.

M. HAMMICK.
10-4-02.

Very well.
