NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

W. Bilderbeck should have addressed the Director who is in a better position to furnish the information required by him than the Chief Secretary. A statement by the Director is apparently as valid as one by the C.S. As it is, we have to obtain the information from the Director and it is submitted that he may be asked first by telegram. The following draft is submitted for approval:-

"When does ~~the~~ approaching summer vacation Presidency College Commence".

W. Bilderbeck does not apparently know that the Educational Department is now under a separate Secretary.

The proposed telegram may be despatched, & the papers then submitted to the Secy. for perusal.

2. When an officer is on leave he is expected to address the Secretariat, & the Chief Secy. is oftener addressed than the departmental one. W.

Bilderbeck has merely done as told by the S.D.

The telegram has been despatched. The file is submitted.
