I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that certain blind pupils who have passed the Primary Examination before a Board have been admitted into the Sarah Tucker Training school, Palamcottah, to be trained as teachers (for the blind). As a written examination is impossible in the case of these teachers, the Principal and Manager, Sarah Tucker College, on the suggestion of Miss Carr requests that they may be admitted to the practical test for Teachers' Certificates on passing a viva voce Examination in the place of the written examination required under article 16, Chapter VIII of the Madras Educational Rules.
