SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

With reference to your No. 927 dated 3rd March 1902, in resubmitting the case of P. Nagarathna Mood: clerk of my office, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as move Government to kindly reconsider their Proceedings No. 99 dated 24th February 1902 declining to exempt him from the examination rules.

2. P. Nagarathna Mood: was recommended for exemption not on account of any difficulty in getting a passed candidate, but on account of the real difficulty, which was also felt by my predecessors of getting a suitable man for the work.

3. In my office there is only one clerk, the pay attached to it is very low, Rs 20 per mensem, & there is no prospect of further promotion. His duties are very varied & responsible in connection with the issuing of certificates, & general correspondence. These duties he performs efficiently, and it would be impossible to procure anything like so good a man for sanctioned pay Rs 20-

4. All my predecessors under whom he has worked testify to his merits.

5. I might mention that the scriptorial work in connection with the issuing of certificates & drawing up of medical cases is very heavy here - much heavier than in any other district in Madras.

6. I therefore request that Government will be pleased to sanction his exemption from the examination rules, as a special case, on the grounds that he is much too valuable a clerk to lose.

7. He has been working here for several years.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant
