Trichinopoly
17th April 1902

To

His Excellency the Right honorable Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Ampthill C. C. I. E
Governor of Fort St George and its dependencies

The humble petition of C. nataraja pillay Thiruvalarasolai village. Thiruvananthi. Fort Trichinopoly St.

May it please your Excellency your Excellency's humble petitioner a loyal subject of Trichinopoly and who belongs to a noble family but now reduced to poverty by increasing debt fled to Ceylon in his young age owing to his unbearable poverty.

While wandering on the street at Kandy a native kind gentleman of Jaffna pitied his fate and had him to Jaffna with him where he was employed under him as an accountant and after several requests he was sent up to school by his kind master. After the death of his master he was compelled to leave the school and to study himself privately. With great obstacles and difficulties he passed the Entrance Examination of the Coaleutta University in 1900. Finding nobody to support him and as it is the duty of a son to support his parents especially in their old age he returned to his native village with great anxiety to relieve his parents from the prison of poverty

17th April 1902

After his arrival he put in applications to some of the departments to the effect of his application he got reply that he must also pass the Hindustani Examination. His Excellency the Right Honourable

After a good inquiry to his great astonishment and surprise he heard from some officers that Entrance Examination of the Government of the Punjab was not qualified as equal to the Matriculation of the University and that they have brought the matter before the Council of the Punjab. Before that period they had given an equal privilege to the Entrance Examination of the Punjab. May it please your Excellency in an application to some officers in Educational Department to make a report subject of the Punjab and who belongs to a noble family but was reduced to poverty by increasing debt fled to Egypt in his young age owing to his unfortunate poverty. He will be pleased on a poor subject to consider
