GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Registrar of the University of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Senate House, 18th April 1902, No. 1198.

I have the honour to inform you that the Vice-Chancellor of this University has selected Mr. C. Ramalinga Reddi, B.A., for the scholarship placed this year at the disposal of the Madras Government.

Mr. Ramalinga Reddi is a Hindu, 21 years of age, was born in a village near Chittoor, North Arcot district, about December 1880. He was educated at the Madras Christian College, at which institution he passed the B.A. degree examination. He appeared in history and political economy and passed both this and the second language division in the first class and the English language division in the second class. He also took a year's course in philosophy and came out first in the first class. He is under the guardianship of his brother C. Narasimha Reddi, a landholder and one of the sureties.

The scholar intends joining one of the Universities in Great Britain with the object of studying at present for the history tripos.

I have furnished him also with the rules for Indian scholars in England framed by the Secretary of State.

He is prepared to provide two sureties and to comply with all the other formalities observed on the previous occasion.

He has intimated in writing his willingness (vide document enclosed) to abide by the rules laid down by the Secretary of State for the guidance of Government scholars.

On receipt of an order from Government I shall make the necessary arrangements for the scholar proceeding to England so as to enable him to arrive there in June next.

I shall also address the Government Solicitor regarding the necessary bond to be executed by the candidate and two sureties for the refund of his passage to England and the provision of the return passage to India in the event of his scholarship being forfeited.

MY LORD,

We have the honour to inform your Lordship that the Madras University has selected C. Ramalinga Reddi for the Government scholarship tenable in England by natives of India, which has been placed this year at the disposal of that University.

2. Ramalinga Reddi is a Hindu; he was born in a village near Chittoor in the North Arcot district about December 1880, and is now 21 years of age; he graduated as a bachelor of arts at the local university from the Madras Christian College, appearing in history and political economy as optional subjects; he was placed in this branch and in the second language division in the first class, and in the English language division in the second class. Ramalinga Reddi also went through a year's course in philosophy, and came out first in the first class. It is stated that he intends joining one of the English universities with the object of studying for the history tripos.

3. The candidate has executed the usual bond, and he left India by the mail steamer which sailed from Bombay on the 17th instant. The Rev. W. Skinner, the principal of the Madras Christian College, has taken him under his care and has promised to be responsible for him in Cambridge until September next, when payment of the scholarship allowances will begin; in the meantime Ramalinga Reddi undertakes to maintain himself. The usual letter of identification will be furnished to him.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,
