Salary ranging from Rs. 25 to Rs. 50.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

C. V. Krishna Rao, 3rd. accountant in the collector's office, the Nilgiris, is an unpassed man as he was in G.O. no. 249 Vol. of 29th April 1894 permitted, as a special case, to appear until 1st. January 1902 for all the special tests except the revenue higher and criminal tests. Within the period thus allowed he appeared for and passed the revenue, translation and account tests by the lower grade. He now applies for permission to appear until 1904 for the account test, higher grade on the ground that, unless he passes this test, he will not be eligible for promotion to the post of Second accountant in the collector's office.

1. The Collector forwards his application for favourable Consideration.
2. The special concession granted to the petitioner was no doubt to enable him to pass such of the special tests as are required for promotion in the ordinary course. Account test, higher grade, was one of these and he should have endeavoured to pass that test. ~~Instead of this he wasted his time in passing some other tests which were not specially required for him. In these circumstances there appears~~

He has shown however that he deserved the concession granted to him. He may perhaps be permitted to appear for the account test, higher grade, this year and in 1903.
