Mr Thomas Jervis entered our Service in the year 1870 without having had any previous training or experience in business work. For about 15 years he was employed in our Office where his duties were connected with accounts and letters, and he performed them very creditably and well, proving himself quick, industrious and willing at his work. For the past 4 years he has been employed as an Assistant in our Furniture Auction Department where he has made himself very useful and given us general satisfaction, and we think he would be sure to please any future employers equally well. He receives his discharge now in consequence of the closing of our business.

Madras 2nd April 1902.

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron Amptill.
G. C. I. E., Governor of Madras.
Madras

The humble petition of Thomas Jervis, a clerk in the Office of Examiner P. W. Accounts, Madras.

Humbly Sheweth

That petitioner's late father, Edward Jervis, served Government in the Chief Engineer's Office, Madras, as Head Draftsman for a period of over 40 years in the times of Colonels A. Cotton, Haber, Horsley &c. and was attacked with paralysis while on duty and died shortly after receiving his pension and possessed good testimonials.

Petitioner's late brother, Joseph Jervis, served Government in the different Range Offices R.W.D. (Salom, Ossoor, Buddalore) as Draftsman for a period of nearly 15 years under Colonel E. A. Ford R.E., Lieut. Prynther Esq &c. and died.

died after receiving a gratuity and
possessed good testimonials.

Petitioner who was very young at the time, was brought up by a mother, who received a small pension. Petitioner at the age of 16 years entered the service of Messrs Franch & Co and served till they closed their business and encloses copy of their testimonial.

After which petitioner was kindly entertained as clerk in the office of Examiner, P.W. Accounts, Madras, in March 1889, he having passed the General Test Examination and eligible for Government service and was exempted from the age bar.

Now that men who have passed the General Test Examination (like petitioner) are not allowed to appear for the Precise Writing Examination and petitioner getting old now, Petitioner begs that his Excellency will be pleased to exempt him from the Precise Writing Examination taking into consideration petitioner's father's good service to Government and also his brother's services to Government.

For which act of kindness and charity - Petitioner, as in duty bound, will always pray.

M. Lewis
