Sir,

Madras.

I have the honor to forward herewith, for the consideration and orders of Government, a petition from T. Rajaratna Mudali, 2nd Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Vriddhachalam, South Arcot District, praying that he may be exempted from passing the Civil Judicial Test, or permitted to appear for the said Examination which he is now prohibited from doing under the Public Service Notification.

2. I recommend that he may be allowed to appear for the Civil Judicial Test though he is not a matriculate.

TO

THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL

FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS.

The humble petition of T. Rajaratna Mudaliar, 2nd clerk District Munsif's Court Vriddhachalam, South Arcot District.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That the petitioner was entertained in the Civil Judicial Department in April 1884 and has been from that time forwards discharging the duties entrusted to him to the satisfaction of his several superiors as would appear from the copies of testimonials attached hereto.

That the petitioner has passed the late Middle School Examination in the first class which was considered to be equivalent to the Matriculation Examination with the Handwriting Test and the late General Test Examination etc. as qualifying for entertainment in the superior grades of Public service during the past years and which entitled the petitioner, till October 1901, to apply for the special Test Examinations of which he has passed the criminal and the Translation Test Lower grades.

That the petitioner to qualify himself for higher offices in the ministerial branch of the Judicial Department appeared for the Civil Judicial Test since 1894, but to his misfortune failed to secure sufficient No. of marks in one or more of the several subjects prescribed for the Examination.

That the petitioner is well-acquainted with all the branches of office work which a Head Ministerial officer in the Civil Judicial Department should know, having been in the Department for a sufficiently long time and having had the advantage of studying for the Civil Judicial Test a good number of times.

That the petitioner would have got through the said Examination had it not been for the unforeseen and peculiar circumstances such as are enumerated below.—

(1) His employment in a Munsif's Court which takes away a greater portion of his precious time.

(2) His poor pay and other family circumstances which prevented the petitioner from applying for leave to study for the examination with all its 8 minimum subjects requiring a good deal of energy, careful study and undivided attention, which could not be had under the circumstances in which the poor petitioner is placed

(3) And above all the increased standard of the present Civil Judicial Test compared with the old Civil lower grade of the special Tests.

That the petitioner further begs to submit that his highly disheartening failure of the previous years which had actually unsettled his mind coupled with his over anxiety to pass the examination at least in the last chance, made him fail most sadly in the last year and thus rendered his future prospects very gloomy for ever, if the benign Government be not most graciously pleased to view the petitioner's hard case as one deserving of its kind concession and patronage.

That the petitioner further begs to submit that he had the best chances of getting the Head clerk's place in the District Munsif's Court at Tindivanam in this District in March 1899 and the acting Head clerk's place in the same Court in which he is at present employed since September 1901, but most unfortunately for him the failure in the above Civil Judicial Test stood in the way of his promotion despite the best wishes of his superior officers to promote him and his competency in other ways.

Under these circumstances the petitioner most humbly and respectfully prays that the benign Government will be graciously pleased, taking into consideration the helplessness of the poor petitioner and the Civil Judicial Test being a bar to his further promotion, either to exempt him from passing the Civil Judicial Test or to relax the rule which prohibits the petitioner from appearing for the Special Tests in future and thus grant him some scope to try some more chances.

For which act of kindness and charity the petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

6 Endorsement on the application to the District Munsif of Vriddhachalam.

Here is the application from the 2nd clerk of this court. He has given me satisfaction in all ways. He is a very careful, and smoothly-going and well-behaved officer. He is fitted for higher offices.

7 T. Rajarathna mudaliar was serving under me as 2nd clerk of the Vriddhachalam District Munsif's court for over a year and during that period I found him an efficient and honest clerk fit to be entrusted with any work in the court's Establishment with which he was fully conversant. He is industrious painstaking and devoted to his work and as he also possesses a fair knowledge of English, I would have gladly raised him to a Head clerk's place, if there had been a vacancy and if he had also passed the Civil Judicial Test for which he has also appeared several times.

I have read with pleasure the favourable opinions expressed in the testimonials given by my predecessor, Mr K. Ramanatha Aiyar and the several District Munsifs under whom Rajarathna Mudaliar, the 2nd clerk of this court served. I fully endorse the opinion expressed by Mr. K. Ramanatha Aiyar and hope that the clerk would deservedly get exemption from passing the civil judicial test or at least permission to appear for the said test and other special tests open to matriculates.

This is to certify that the bearer Rajarathnam is one of the pupils of H. H. Nizam's Hyderabad College.

He is one of the most promising lads we have. He obtained a silver medal at the last Prize Distribution for proficieny in English.

He was one of the candidates sent from our college for the Middle School Examination. The result is not out yet but from what I know of him I feel certain of his success. He is one of those painstaking and intelligent boys whom it is a plesure to teach. I am sorry he is obliged to leave the college owing to his father's death.

It will give me great pleasure to see him get on in the world. He certainly deserves to do so.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The petitioner has appeared several times for the civil judicial test & failed. There seems to be very little use in permitting him to appear again. The draft placed below may perhaps issue. The test is no doubt too high for him.

As the district judge makes a recommendation in the man's favor, orders are requested.

I think the application should be rejected: the remarks in the note above are just.
