Honourable Sir,

I am directed to forward for such orders as the Government may deem proper, a copy of letter No.1261, dated 12th April 1902, together with its enclosure, from the District Judge of Ganjam requesting that G.Narayanamurthi, Bench Clerk in the District Munsif's Court of Sompeta, may be exempted from the rule prohibiting his appearance for the Precis-writing Test.

I have the honour to be,
Honourable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Alimur

Deputy Registrar,

Copy of letter No.1261, dated the 12th April 1902, from the District Judge of Ganjam to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras:-

I have the honour to state that G.Narayanamurthy, Bench Clerk in the District Munsif's Court, Sompeta, has passed --- Translation Lower, Criminal Lower and Civil Judicial Test and has long been in this Department. The educational examination he has passed being only the Middle School, in the 1st Class, the recent public service notification debars him from going up for Precis-writing Test from this year.

2. The Munsif strongly recommends that he may be permitted to go up for the Test (vide his letter No.511/10-4-02, copy of which is herein enclosed.

3. I think he deserves the concession and I request that he may be exempted from the rule prohibiting his appearance for the Precis-writing Test.

To The District Judge of Ganjam, Berhampur.

Sir, In forwarding herewith the application of G. Narayan a martyr, L. & Clerk of this Court, I have the honor to state that he is an intelligent and hardworking clerk deserving of exemption he seeks.

As this is a backward District and as promotion in the Judicial Establishment is very slow and educated people have therefore no inducement to enter into, and remaining in, this Department, it is but just and reasonable that hardworking clerks like the applicant should be exempted from the rule prohibiting their appearance for higher tests.

This Clerk is particularly deserving of the concession he seeks being very useful, possessing knowledge of reading, writing, Hindi and interpreting to same into English or Telugu and vice versa. Such qualification among clerks is very rare. He bears good character and has secured valuable testimonials from Officers under whom he has worked.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The High Court forwards for orders a letter from the district judge of Gaurjam requesting that G. Narayana murthi, bench clerk in the dist. Munsiff's Court at Sompeta may be exempted from the rule prohibiting his appearance for the judge's test.

2. The rule referred to is art. 4 of the Special Test notification. The clerk in question not having passed the upper secondary or the matriculation Examination, cannot appear for any of the special tests. He has passed only the middle school examination in the first class, and persons having this qualification ~~and~~ who on the 1st. January 97 held appointments carrying a salary of Rs. 15 per mensem or upwards in the superior service of Govt. were specially allowed to appear for all the special tests except the revenue test, higher grade and the criminal tests until 1st. January 1902 - vide G.O. no. 584 Ed. 57 21st. Sept. 1897. In G.O. no. 66 Ed. 57 11th. Feb. 1902, the Govt. refused to extend this concession any longer.

3. The clerk in question <sup>thus</sup> had since 28

time to pass the precis test and there seems to be no reason for treating him differently from those whose requests were refused in the order last quoted.

G.O. no 66 Bdl. D. 11th Feb. 1902.

For the A.S.

The High Court does not support the application but Ganjam is a backward district.

2. The Sea Customs clerks applied for a general concession permitting them to appear for any of the special tests except the revenue test, higher grade, and the criminal judicial tests, highest lower grades, ~~and~~ and were refused. The application in the present case is for permission to appear for the precis test alone. The original application has not been forwarded to Govt. but if Narayana murti passed the translation lower and the civil judicial test during the five years for which the concession lasted there is some reason for granting his request. <sup>at least for one or two years.</sup> Should any enquiries be made?

S. B.

The High Court do not support it but the registrar's letter is so worded as to show that they do not oppose it.

Can the ~~guy~~ others be looked up at Madras? It will save a reference to the High Court if they can be, & some of the men down there must be very busy.

A.S.P.

G. Narayana murti passed the translation test, lower grade, at the examination held in October 1896 and the civil judicial test at the examination held in October 1901.

He then appears to have taken advantage of the concession & being a middle school man probably took more time. The present application may perhaps be granted.
