Telegram from the Registrar of the University of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Chepauk, 13th May 1902.

Your telegram of yesterday. Scholar says his arrangements already made for going England and asks permission to go now, but that payment of scholarship begin in September. He will live in England till September at his own expense. Wire whether this agreed to as steamer leaves Bombay on Saturday.

Telegram from the Rev. W. SKINNER, Principal, Christian College, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 13th May 1902.

Government scholar Ramalinga Reddi proposes travelling under my care. Will be responsible for him in Cambridge till September. Solicit permission for his leaving.

Telegram to the Registrar, Madras University, dated 13th May 1902, No. 32.

As Mr. Skinner promises to be responsible for Ramalinga Reddi until September and as he will undertake his own maintenance till same month, Government withdraw objection and permit scholar's departure this week as proposed.

Telegram to the Rev. W. SKINNER, Principal, Madras Christian College, dated 13th May 1902, No. 33.

Your telegram. As you will undertake responsibility, Government will withdraw objection and sanction Ramalinga Reddi's leaving this week from Bombay as proposed.

ORDER—No. 307, Educational, dated 17th May 1902.

The Accountant-General will be authorised to pay the Registrar the actual charges (not exceeding Rs. 467-8-0) incurred by him in obtaining a passage for Ramalinga Reddi.

2. The usual letter of identification will be furnished to the Registrar for transmission to the candidate.

3. The bond will be forwarded to the Superintendent of the General Records for safe custody.

LETTER—No. 308, Educational, dated 17th May 1902, to the Under Secretary of State for India.

I am directed to inform you that the bearer C. Ramalinga Reddi is the candidate selected for the Government scholarship tenable in England by Natives of India which has been placed this year at the disposal of the University of Madras. His scholarship will begin from the 1st of September next.

A. T. PRINGLE,

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 307, 308, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 17TH MAY 1902.

[SUBJECT.—Government scholarship tenable in England by natives of India.]

From the Registrar, Madras University, No. 1303, dated 6th May 1902.

For the Assistant Secretary—

In the draft despatch to the Secretary of State which is now being printed at Madras, it is said that Ramalinga Reddi will be instructed to arrive in England in September next. This is in accordance with the general * orders of the Secretary of State. Ramalinga Reddi, however, proposes to leave India by the middle of this month. Should not the Registrar of the Madras University be specially asked to stop him?

2. Orders are also requested as to whether passage money should be allowed at the P. & O. rate or the B.I.S.N. rate.

3. The Government order † on the Registrar's letter No. 1198 of the 18th ultimo should reach him to-day by the latest. He has been asked to tell Ramalinga Reddi to leave India so as to arrive in England in September, but this does not seem to be sufficient.

P. T. THARYAN.
9-5-02.

H.M.—

The orders of 1889 are precise, and the payment of the fare to England should, it is thought, be made conditional on the student's going at the time fixed by Government. It is, of course, very natural of him to wish to see the coronation (this must be the reason of his wanting to leave this month), but, if he goes, it will create the difficulties stated in Mr. Lyall's letter.

2. As regards the choice of line, the student will probably not wish to go by P. & O. if he cannot leave till later on in the year.

3. It is proposed to telegraph as follows to the Registrar:—

"Your 1303, 6th May. Please refer [to] G.O., 692, Educational, 4th November 1889. Government cannot sanction present proposal [of] Ramalinga Reddi [to] leave for England [in] this month."

[G.O., No. 287, Educational, dated 12th May 1902.]

Telegram from the Registrar, University of Madras, dated 13th May 1902.

" " Principal, Madras Christian College, dated 13th May 1902.

Telephonic message to the Hon'ble Mr. Thomson, dated 13th May 1902.

With reference to the Government of India scholar Ramalinga Reddi whose case Honourable Member may remember, Mr. Skinner telegraphs that he will take him under his care and will be responsible for him in Cambridge till September. The Registrar also telegraphs that payment of scholarship may begin in September and that till then Ramalinga Reddi may be permitted to live at his own expense. Under the circumstances it does not seem likely that the Secretary of State will object, and it is submitted that the required permission may be given. The steamer leaves Bombay on Saturday.

Telephonic message to the Assistant Secretary to Government, dated 13th May 1902.

In the circumstances, as he will undertake his own maintenance till September and Mr. Skinner will be responsible for him till September, there need be no objection to Ramalinga Reddi going to England.

The despatch to the Secretary of State intimating the selection of Ramalinga Reddi for the Government of India scholarship for this year is in the press. Its last paragraph will now require slight alteration and I have called for a proof. A letter of identification has also to be sent, but meanwhile orders are requested on paragraph 2 of the office-note, dated 9th instant—page 1 supra.

P. T. THARYAN.
15-5-02.

Under the circumstances, I think he is to be allowed the fare of the steamer he goes by.

Paragraph 3 of the despatch to the Secretary of State has been slightly altered as shown in the proof placed below. A draft order to the Accountant-General for payment of the passage money and a draft letter of identification to the Under Secretary of State are also placed below.
