To
The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

X AS under the sanction accorded in G.O. No. 197

Educational, dated 4th April 1901, the period of appointment of the three temporary assistants at the Government Training College, Rajahmundry, expired with the 31st March last, I have the honour to request that for the reasons stated below you will be so good as to obtain the early sanction of Government to the continuance of the establishment until the 31st March 1903.

2. The circumstances that necessitated the employment of the temporary assistants in previous years have not altered in any way, for there has been no material reduction in the number of pupils attending the practising school or in the number of classes to be taught. The necessity for the additional hands is further accentuated by the fact that the number of students under training is smaller this year than it was last year, and that more teaching work must in consequence fall on the regular staff. Mr. Stone also states that he has arranged for special science lectures being given to the lower secondary and primary training classes. This, it need hardly be said, is a step in the right direction, for these lectures are likely to be of the utmost value in developing the intelligence of the teachers and providing them with material for object lessons. This work and the usual science teaching for the seven sections of the high school classes cannot possibly be done by the regular staff without assistance, especially as none of the graduate students under training have taken a degree in science. The insufficiency of one of the assistants in the Arts Section has had to be employed to teach Chemistry to a section of the sixth form and that the strength of the Upper Secondary Department of the practising school is expected to increase at the beginning of the next term.

3. The necessary provision has been made in the current year's budget in accordance with the permission granted in G.O. R. No. 360, Educational, dated 13th June 1901.

4. I solicit the favour of early orders on this letter.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. R. Sen

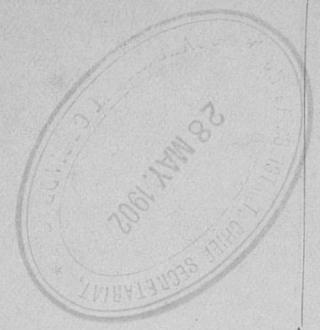

For Director of Public Instruction.
