Collector of Kollegal Division to the Collector of Coimbatore

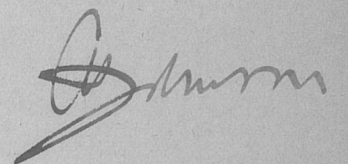

---00---

I have the honour to report that there are three vacancies among Taluk peons on Rs 6 caused by the resignation of Ramasami naidu some time back in the year 1900, and the deaths of Pongia goundan and Subanji Rao on the 16th and 22nd April 02 respectively.

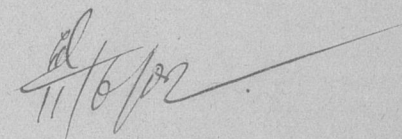

2. There ~~was~~^{are} no passed candidates available to fill up the places permanently. So the 1st vacancy ~~remained~~^{remained} vacant and it is being filled up now and then by unpassed men temporarily.

Of the three vacancies one has now been given to Rangan, mashaljee of my office. He is ^a young man of 7 years' service though illiterate; another has been given to Vencatan, mashaljee of the Taluk office. He can read and write Kanarese. The third vacancy has been given to Bapanu, Taluk sweeper. He can read and write Tamil and ^{has} ~~also~~ had seven years' service. All these are physically fit for peons' places.

3. As Kollegal is a backward taluk and no candidates eligible under the Examination Rules, are available to fill up the vacancies, I recommend that the above three persons be exempted from the Examination Rules and confirmed in their places.
