To

The SECRETARY to the GOVERNMENT of INDIA,
Finance and Commerce Department.

Sir,

The Right Honourable the Secretary of State in his despatch No. 111 Pub. (Educl.) dated 16th August 1901 sanctioned an honorarium of Rs. 1275/- to Mr. W. D. Porterfield, late Superintendent School of Arts,, Madras for conducting certain technical Examinations held in November 1900. The payment which is a Provincial charge has not appeared in the Inward London account and the Comptroller General has intimated that the payment has been charged off finally in the Home accounts under Education and that the transfer of the charge from Imperial to Provincial should be made through the Land Revenue head with the consent of the Local Government.

in the file
The Local Government states that it has no objection to the transfer. As under article 1367 Civil Account Code transfers through the Land Revenue head should be supported by the orders of the Government of India, I have the honour to request that the transfer of the charge may be sanctioned and the sanction communicated to me.

I have, &c.,
