To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department.

Sir,

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 713, Judicial, dated 28th April 1902, I have the honour to submit for the sanction of Government a recommendation on behalf of one K.L. Narasiah for exemption from the Examination rules for service in the jail Department with special reference to the appointment of Assistant Jailer at the Subjail, Koraput in the Vizagapatnam District.

2. The Superintendent of the Subjail reports that in response to an advertisement in the local District Gazette inviting applications for the post of Assistant Jailer only two were received, one from K.L. Narasiah who is declared to have passed the Lower Secondary Examination in the Second class, and the other from a candidate who had passed only the Primary Examination. The former with whom the present communication is concerned is the local Telegraph Signaller and his application was submitted through his official Superior. He is reported to be about 23 years of age, of good character and to all appearances a promising young man. His substantive appointment is Telegraph Signaller of Salur on Rs 15/- but he is at present officiating officiating at Koraput on Rs 20/-.

3. The favour of Early orders is solicited.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

M. S. S.

Lt. Col., I. M. S.,

Inspector General of Prisons.
