Notes connected with G.O. No. 400, Ed 9/12/02

[G.O. no 400 Ed d 12th July 1902]

After issue please put up Mr. Nelson's agreement. I believe he is not entitled to any leave with allowances and in that case the full pay will be available for his locum tenens if the pay is attached to the appointment and not personal to Mr. Nelson.

The agreement under which Mr. Nelson continues in service at present will be found in G.O. no 626 Ed d 10th December 1900. The terms offered by him with the exception of that lettered (b) were recommended to and accepted by the Secretary of State in his despatch printed in G.O. no 447 Ed d 12th August 1901. Under these terms Mr. Nelson can have leave with allowances only two years from date of re-engagement - i.e. two years from 1st May 1901. It seems clear therefore that Mr. Nelson cannot draw any allowances during his present leave. It does not appear however that full pay can be given to his locum tenens. The appointment is one which has to be made by the Secretary of State and the local Govt. can only put in a person to officiate in it. This will not entitle ^{the officiating officer} him to more than half the minimum pay or Rs 500. Please see the ^{Alp's} remarks
