Ref. on Cur. No. 703-Petr., of 02. Cuddapah Collector's office,

Dated 16th June 1902.

The petition of P. Hanumantha charlu, who was till very recently acting Gumastah in the office of the Tahsildar of Proddatur, requesting that he may be exempted permanently from the examination rules and the age-bar, is submitted herewith to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, together with a copy of Proddatur Tahsildar's report on the petition, Reference No. 854-Sup., of 1902, dated 23rd April 1902, forwarded with the Jammalamadugu Deputy Collector's Endorsement dated 21st May 1902.

2. This year, while conducting Jamabandi of Proddatur Taluk, I saw the petitioner, Hanumantha charlu. He seemed to me to be a useful and fit candidate. Though an unpassed candidate, he had good knowledge of Revenue office details and kept his accounts in a satisfactory condition. He proved himself useful and helpful in the Jamabandi. In view to appointing him permanently to a Taluk clerkship on Rs.15/- in the Cuddapah District, I strongly recommend that he be exempted permanently from the Examination rules and the age-bar in consideration of paucity of passed men in this district and in consideration of the high opinion of him expressed by so many officers.

the following few lines about his hard case

for your Honors Consideration

2. The petitioner first entered service in the Revenue Department as acting Saluk

Gumatra of Jaminala and was in 1876.

he was on duty as an acting man until

1880 when he was sent out as process

(a member of a temporary Establishment).

This temporary vacancy ceased in 1885 and the petitioner was then appointed to the post of Talukate Gunasta when that was under amami System and in 1888 he was again

taken as an acting Taluk Gunasta and Continued to be so acting until 1896 when he was temporarily posted as Famine Pay master on Rs 30 during the famine of 1896-1897. After close of the famine in 1898

he was again appointed as Taluk Gunasta of Choddalur and continued to be so until a few days ago when he was ousted. The petitioner begs to submit that though he entered the service in his youth he was so unfortunate that he was not able to have a permanent footing of even an akhder.

He has put in a service of over 23 years in the

any employment

4. Your humble petitioner begs to state that he knows Telugu well and English moderately and can manage even English well.

5. The humble petitioner therefore requests that your honor will be graciously pleased to take your petitioner's poor case into your benign consideration and give him some appointment permanently and more if found to be deserving of such concession, for his permanent exemption for entrance to the Public Service.

Cuddapah.

Through the Deputy Collector, Jammalamadugu.

Sir

I beg to resubmit herewith N. Current No. 703-Peth., of 1902, dated 14th April 1902, and to respectfully report as follows:-

2. The petitioner is one, P. Hanumantha charlu, until very recently an acting clerk of this office. This clerk came to this Taluk in the month of September 1899 and has therefore been working under me ever since. He has been in charge of Ledger work and in addition thereto, he was doing much other work in connection with the cases of Embezzlement, Land sales, and other miscellaneous works. In the discharge of his duty, he has given me entire satisfaction. He is well versed in every branch of work in a Taluk office.

3. The man is now a little over 40 years of age and has put in active service as acting clerk of a Taluk office for over 12 years. He was for sometime Toll-gate Gumastah when the tolls were under Amani system, and, for some time Taluk Gumastah of Jammalamadugu Taluk. During the short time I was in charge of Jammalamadugu Taluk, I have come across with many papers dealt with by this clerk and cannot but come to the conclusion that he has done good service to Government. In fact, all the questions on inams that were raised during the Jamabandi of Jammalamadugu Taluk in 1894, were dealt with by this clerk and that exceptionally well.

4. During the famine of 1896-1897, this man was a paymaster on Relief works in Jammalamadugu Taluk and in that capacity he is said to have done excellent work. His work was, it appears, appreciated by the special Deputy Collector, Mr. Narayanaswami Pillai, in the Famine Administration Report of that year.

5. In the month of December 1901, the Collector, Mr. J. H. Robertson, declined to sanction anymore sanction to this man: the Deputy Collector asked me to report if this man deserved any permanent exemption and my remarks are noted on the statement in Disposal No. 1004-D., of 1901, dated 16th December 1901 herewith

put up

put up for favour of perusal and return.

6. Personally, I am of opinion that, considering the long service that the man has rendered and that with great zeal and ability, and the fact that, in these times, it is hard to find men of such abilities, he is a fit man for exemption and I am sure and can confidently assert that his permanent exemption will improve the tone of the Establishment and to the Public Service Generally.

I beg &c.,

(Signed) K. Rama charlu,

For Tahsildar,

25-4-02.

Despatched 21st May 1902.

Submitted to the Collector of Cuddapah. My predecessor already recommended P. Hanumantha charlu for permanent exemption from age and examination restrictions in his Endorsement, Ref. on Current No. 1349-Collr., of 1901, dated 18th December 1901, but the Collector declined to recommend his exemption. Wide your office Disposal No. 7-D-Rev., of 1902, dated 3rd January 1902. I am of opinion that the Board may be addressed to exempt him.

C. No. 1044, From the Secy. Departt., No. 1725, Dated 10th July 1902.

Subject: Exemption from the examination rules.

I order as to whether the exemption applied for may be granted. The Collector strongly recommends it in consideration of the paucity of passed men in his district and of the high opinion of the applicant expressed by his superiors.

Cuddapah is a difficult place district for finding passed men. I think we may exempt.
