Sir,

Sir
With due respect, I beg to submit that the concession of five years granted in the notification published in the Fort St George Gazette dated 8th Dec 1896 page 623 to the middle school candidates to appear for the special test examination expired on the 1st January 1902 and that my prospect in this office entirely depends in passing the Sea Customs test Translation test (Lower grade) and Precis Writing test. As I have passed the Sea Customs test I most earnestly beg that a special permission may be granted to me to appear for the Translation and Precis Writing tests until I come out successful in them so that I may qualify myself to the appointments in the Sea Customs House.
